The most exciting part of my holiday.

The most exciting part of my holiday is when me and my family went to the Manukau cinema to watch Jumanji the Next Level. We really wanted to watch this movie.

Before my siblings and I went into the cinema we went to the arcade and played a lot of games. I played a basketball game, a shooting game and a punching bag game.

When we finished playing games we went to buy snacks for the movie. While we were watching the movie I dropped my popcorn and I was embarrassed. My family looked at me and told me to leave it on the ground, but I picked it up.

My favourite part of the movie is when Kevin Hart asked Dwyane Johnson for a fight. I hope I can go to the movies again and watch another movie.
