

Camilla Rowe Memorial Scholarship

'To Thine Own Self Be True'

The Camilla Rowe Memorial Scholarship honors the memory of a dedicated and loving teacher at Eisenhower Middle School. Her teaching philosophy emphasized to her students “to question, seek answers and question again in the search of Truth.”

A $1,500 Scholarship will be awarded to one student to be used toward college expenses. The Albuquerque Public Schools Foundation will disperse the award.

Criteria:

- Applicant must be a graduating senior of La Cueva or Eldorado High School and must have attended Eisenhower Middle School for a minimum of one full year.
- Applicant must submit a 400 to 500 word essay on “How I Can Impact People Through My Artistic Expression” by April 18, 2026.
- Applicant must submit the essay and application via email to camillarowescholarship@gmail.com

Finalists will participate in a short interview regarding the essay and application. A member of the Camilla Rowe family will be present at the honor assembly of the winner’s school to present the scholarship. For questions or further info, contact camillarowescholarship@gmail.com.
