

Striking Scoring Sheet

*Reference Critical Elements from Rubric

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
The student is unable to strike a ball (forehand or backhand), using a paddle or racket, back and forth over a net with another skilled player for 6 out of 8 attempts using three of the four of the critical elements.	The student is able to strike a ball (forehand or backhand), using a paddle or racket, back and forth over a net with another skilled player for 6 out of 8 attempts using three of the four of the critical elements.	The student successfully rallies for at least two consecutive hits with both forehand and backhand strikes using a paddle or racket to strike a ball back and forth over a net with another skilled player in a small sided modified cooperative game for 2 out of 3 attempts .	The student successfully rallies for at least four consecutive hits with both forehand and backhand strikes using a paddle or racket to strike a ball back and forth over a net with another skilled player in a small sided modified cooperative game for 2 out of 3 attempts .	In addition to Level 4 , the student is able to identify through writing , the proper strokes to return ball and maintain rally.	The student is able to provide a written critique of their own OR the teacher's performance of the proper strokes to return the ball and/or maintain rally that addresses all five of the critique criteria.	The student is able to develop a strategy in writing based on their own performance of the proper strokes to return the ball and/or maintain rally that addresses all four strategy criteria.