Swipes

We have found a few things that really increase your income when it comes to a promotion like this. You probably know this already but here goes:

Send multiple emails. Especially towards the end when the price is going up.

Write your own emails. This is a complete hassle but it is proven that when you write your own emails and tell a short story about the product or what the product will do for them it helps get more clicks.

Do a quick video of the product. Again this takes a little time but if you can do it it will increase conversions.

KEY SUCCESS FACTOR: Plug these emails into your autoresponder now, set the date accordingly then sit back and watch the sales come in!

✗ use copyright images from Google (that you can get sued for)

✗ pay $100s for a single image or video from sites like Shutterstock, Gettyimages etc.

✗ hire a freelancer or outsourcer that charges $1000s per project..

All your mini projects adds up and over time you might end up paying $10,000s for these resources without even realising.. huh!
