

	I. Inquire (Question & Examine)	II. Include (Other People Matter P2 Mindset)	III. Collaborate (Work Together & Communicate)	IV. Curate (Choose "Just Right" Materials)	V. Explore (Search & Learn)	VI. Engage (Use Information Safely)
A. Think	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Asking an "I wonder" question about a topic of choice. 2. Brainstorming what they already know about a topic. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Being aware that others have things to contribute. 2. Knowing that varying POVs and opinions exist. 3. Making meaningful connections to other cultures and the world. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Show interest in growing our understandings. 2. Learning by being part of a group. 3. Answering questions with the help of group partners. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Deciding what information we need. 2. Finding possible sources of information. 3. Choose which sources you will use. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Read, write, and create for different reasons and in multiple ways. 2. Asking questions about what is said or presented. 3. Questioning and researching for personal growth. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Using information, technology, and media responsibly. 2. Using information, technology, and media respectfully. 3. Decide if information is accurate, valid, and appropriate.
B. Create	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Using evidence to answer their question. 2. Create a learning plan. 3. Present findings in a variety of ways. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Working with peers with different perspectives. 2. Considering different perspectives when learning. 3. Representing different perspectives when learning. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Using many different tools to communicate. 2. Connecting with peers to learn new things. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Looking at more than one kind of source 2. Gathering information from a variety of perspectives 3. Making sure your sources are valid and accurate. 4. Organizing information in appropriate ways 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Solving problems by reflecting and trying new things. 2. Continue to "tinker" and create based on personal interest. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Using and borrowing information from others responsibly. 2. Knowing and respecting that others create information that you use. 3. Showing where you got your information from.
C. Share	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Discuss findings and projects with peers. 2. Giving feedback to peers. 3. Using feedback to improve. 4. Sharing projects with others outside the classroom. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Using information for conversation and debates. 2. Having a discussion with multiple POVs. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Giving and receiving feedback. 2. Considering multiple perspectives during research. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Working with partners to decide the value of a resource. 2. Working with a partner/s to create information. 2a. Giving credit for information used. 3. Working with others to compare/contrast information. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Being curious about a topic of choice. 2. Searching for information with a partner or in a small group. 3. Solving problems with a partner or in a small group. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Sharing information responsibly. 2. Sharing what was learned appropriately.
D. Grow	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Keep looking for answers and information. 2. Participate in an ongoing inquiry. 3. Connect information to their lives and/or the world. 4. Reflect on learning and make changes and/or decisions. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Looking for input from peers. 2. Having an interest in a perspective that is not your own. 3. Thinking about your place in the world. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Having a group discussion. 2. Understand that learning is a responsibility. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Judging the quality, usefulness, and accuracy of our sources. 2. Using a graphic organizer to show new understandings. 3. Sharing how we found our information with others. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. "Try and try again!" 2. Identifying personal skills that can be improved. 3. Being open-minded about positive and constructive feedback. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Using information and technology for personal reasons. 2. Thinking about how knowledge comes from others. 3. Inspiring others to use information responsibly.