

Member of Record Awards New Artist all female idol group 'BiSH' caught in heated love scoop

Aina The End, a part of the 6 member female idol group 'BiSH' has had her passionate relationship revealed. It was reported by the online, live program 'Direct Hit! Weekly Bunshun Live' on February 2nd.

BiSH received a New Artist award at the "60th Japan Record Awards", held on December 30, 2018. They made their major debut in 2016, taking their catchphrase of "An instrument-less punk band" into 2018, where they had their big break.

One of the main vocalists in BiSH is Aina The End. She released her solo debut single 'Don't Go' on September 19, 2018. The song and music video were played over 1 million times on YouTube.

Aina (centre of the picture) and UK (right) coming out of a livehouse together ©Bungeishunjū

Aina has a cohabiting boyfriend. It is UK (31) who plays the guitar in rap group 'MOROHA'. MOROHA works as an MC duo, he performs alongside Afro (31). He made a guest appearance on TV show 'Shabekuri 007' (Japanese TV series) during the Johnny's actor, Toma Ikuta's, 'Person I Want To Meet The Most Right Now' section of the show (broadcast June 1, 2015).

The two of them created a special unit named “SEXFRIEND”, and also performed music together.

BiSH is a 6 member group. The members are, front row left to right, Ayuni D, Momoko Gumi Company, Cent Chihiro Chicchi. Back row left to right, LingLing, Aina The End, Hashiyasume Atsuko.

MOROHA held a single live at Zepp Tokyo in Odaiba, Tokyo on December 16, 2018. Around 8:30pm, Aina, who had just finished work, was rushed there by taxi. Around an hour later, Aina and UK were seen leaving together. The two of them then took a taxi back to Aina’s home.

On January 31st, we interviewed Aina directly as she left the home.

- I am from the Weekly Bunshun. Are you living with UK of MOROHA?

“We are not living together”

- You two are in a relationship, aren’t you?

“Please confirm that with the office”

Aina replied thoughtfully with a smile.

Aina responds to the direct questioning with a smile ©Bungeishunjū

Aina's affiliated office provided us with a statement, "Because she is private, I will only say the basics. I don't think they are living together." In addition to this, UK's affiliated label also provided us with a statement, "The private parts of his life are left to him. The reality is that they are not living together."