

Let's Zoom Schedule! Week of April 27, 2020 ~ Seidel

Hello Room 14 Superstars,

Now that we have finished our first week back from Spring Break, I think we are getting back into the flow of our new distance learning process. I really enjoyed zooming with you 2 (and someone of you 3) times in one week. It almost feels like we are learning together in room 14 again...almost. We will have several chances to Zoom together again this week.

Monday, April 27 @ 10:00 ~ I want you to look at the new assignments posted for the week, BEFORE our meeting at 10:00. We will discuss two things:

- Questions you have about this week's assignments
- I will read a book aloud and we will discuss an assignment about positivity.

Here is the link for everyone for Monday:

Wednesday, April 29 @ 10:00 ~ We will do two activities (1 must do and 1 OPTIONAL):

- 1) A fun math activity called Seesaw.
- 2) Office Hours after our math activity (OPTIONAL- Only if you have questions about our weekly assignments)

Here is the link for Wednesday's Math Activity and Office Hours:

Remember: You are expected to work on your assignments and ask for help if you need it. As a studious learner, we are practicing several skills.

- Focus on your task
- Participate in distance learning
- Try your hardest
- Pay attention
- Follow PAW pledge
- Give personal best

I miss you all very much and can't wait to "see" you on Monday. Remember to check the website for the new assignments before our 10:00 zoom!

Love,
Ms. Seidel
