

Look at the underlined word in each sentence. Write in the word form. You can use the following code:

Noun=N

Verb=V

Adjective=Adj

3D printer: 3D printers can create real objects using digital images. _____

application: A single tool can have many different applications. _____

concept: Makers work to turn their concepts into reality. _____

device: Many people use devices such as smartphones. _____

do-it-yourself: You can learn about do-it-yourself projects online. _____

experiment: Makers have fun experimenting with new tools and materials. _____

failure: Sometimes we learn more from failure than success. _____

hands-on: A hands-on person enjoys being involved in different projects. _____

hardware: Computer hardware continues to get lighter and faster. _____

inspire: If you are inspired to create something, then go out and do it. _____

open-source: Anyone can access open-source software. _____

play around with: Do you like to play around with gadgets to get them to work? _____

resourceful: A resourceful person will try to fix a broken object before replacing it. _____

solve: Many people create their own gadgets to solve problems. _____

software: You use different types of software each time you work on your computer. _____

affordable: It's often more affordable to fix an item than it is to replace it. _____

approach: Many makers take a hands-on approach to problem solving. _____

flexible: Makers must be flexible and willing to try different ways of doing things. _____

innovator: An innovator creates something totally unique. _____

answers

3D printer: 3D printers can create real objects using digital images. noun application: A single tool can have many different applications. noun concept: Makers work to turn their concepts into reality. noun device: Many people use devices such as smartphones. noun

do-it-yourself: You can learn about do-it-yourself projects online. adjective experiment: Makers have fun experimenting with new tools and materials. verb failure: Sometimes we learn more from failure than success. noun hands-on: A hands-on person enjoys being involved in different projects. adjective hardware: Computer hardware continues to get lighter and faster. noun inspire: If you are inspired to create something, then go out and do it. verb open-source: Anyone can access open-source software. adjective play around with: Do you like to play around with gadgets to get them to work? verb resourceful: A resourceful person will try to fix a broken object before replacing it. adjective solve: Many people create their own gadgets to solve problems. verb software: You use different types of software each time you work on your computer. noun affordable: It's often more affordable to fix an item than it is to replace it. adjective approach: Many makers take a hands-on approach to problem solving. noun flexible: Makers must be flexible and willing to try different ways of doing things. adjective innovator: An innovator creates something totally unique. noun