

Session A -Answer Key

Section 1	News Report
Question 1	RACE Response  OSSLT Item-Specific Open-Response Reading Rubric Kettleb...
Question 2	uniqueness
Question 3	In the importance of strength
Question 4	Paragraph 4: An opinion about Kettlebell Paragraph 5: Comparisons between kettlebell and another sport Paragraph 6: Facts about kettlebell as a sport
Question 5	endurance
Question 6	An accomplishment

Section 2	Information Paragraph
Question 1	The unexpected outcome of the experiment
Question 2	The children originally tested
Question 3	Credited to
Question 4	The original experiment was conducted a long time ago.- Doubt The researchers who conducted the experiment were trained experts- Support Some children in the experiment might have like marshmallows more than others did.-Doubt
Question 5	He provided expert supporting information
Question 6	Main Idea The results of the Marshmallow Test demonstrated that a child's future success is linked to self-regulation Supporting Details (in any order) The results of the Marshmallow Test showed that learning to comply with orders is not the same as learning "executive function" skills. The results of the Marshmallow Test indicated that "children who could wait for 15 minutes before eating the marshmallows scored 10 percent higher on college exams".

Section 3	Narrative
Question 1	Paragraph 5
Question 2	A clarification
Question 3	Precise
Question 4	Hearing Touching
Question 5	First event: Started rebuilding small engines with his brother Second event: Worked on family cars Last event: Worked at Bruce Kitchen Automotive
Question 6	His inability to operate a car
Question 7	They confirm Aaron's skills

Section 4	Language Conventions
Question 1	Remove the first comma
Question 2	She sings better than I do
Question 3	Until
Question 4	The Peace Tower, located in front of the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa, was built between 1919 and 1927.
Question 5	Sakinah and I collected leaves for the fall festival.
Question 6	A diverse climate, rugged mountains and waterfalls make Quebec a perfect place for the following activities: hiking cycling and kayaking.
Question 7	Pavinder's truck's tire deflated so it was towed to the garage.

Session B- Answer Key

Section 5	Opinion Essay
Question 1	 OSSLT Opinion Essay Rubric and Scoring Guide for Topic Devel...  OSSLT Opinion Essay Rubric and Scoring Guide for Writing Co...

Section 6	Dialogue
Question 1	She is frustrated. She is discouraged.
Question 2	A list of examples.
Question 3	pointless
Question 4	To confirm that she's making an informed choice about her future
Question 5	First event: Anton enrolls in a four-credit co-op placement. Second event: Olivia tries to choose her grade 11 courses. Last event: Olivia decides to sign up for OYAP.

Section 7	Language Conventions
Question 1	Salad is one of the healthy food options in the school cafeteria.
Question 2	Both
Question 3	from
Question 4	Nina, a busy student who is taking extra courses, still found time to join the student council.
Question 5	"Where do you want to go next?" asked her brother. "We need to have a plan."
Question 6	First, they went to see the new movie, and then they bought a new video game.
Question 7	The diner offered both popcorn and tortilla chips with another snack in the daily special.

--	-----------------------------

We're not exactly sure why there are two information paragraphs on the practice test, but could be part of the field test questions.

Section 8	Information Paragraph
Question 1	Calcium and phosphates
Question 2	Artificial replacement
Question 3	To connect a term and an explanation
Question 4	Traditional and 3-D bone replacement
Question 5	Sculpture→item Artificial limb→ item
Question 6	Main Idea 3-D printers have the potential to change medical outcomes Supporting Details (in any order) 3-D printers are used to produce artificial bone and soft tissue 3-D printers can produce a soft-skin like tissue that helps to reduce the need for painful skin grafts in patients.