

v as

Topic	A1 - Explore - 8marks (8 marks AO1)	A2 - Analyse - 12marks (4 marks AO1, 8 marks AO2)	Ba Clarify - 10 marks (10 marks AO1)	Bb - Analyse- 20marks (5 marks AO1, 15 marks AO2)	C - Evaluate - 30marks (AO1, 25 marks AO2)5 marks
Environmental Ethics	- Explore secular ethical perspectives on conservation. (8) - Explore religious perspectives on conservation. (8 marks) - Explore the concepts of stewardship and conservation. (8)	- Assess the work of a significant figure in environmental ethics. (12) - Assess the claim that religious approaches to environmental ethics are successful. (12)			- Evaluate the view that religious perspectives offer a useful way of approaching environmental ethics. (30)
Equality	- Explore the contribution of a significant figure in the area of equality. (8) - Explore the significant events ;in the history of one area of equality (gender, race or disability). (8)	- Assess the claim that religious approaches to equality have only been of limited in success (12). - Assess the significance of one secular approach in bringing about change and greater equality in modern society (12). - Assess the work of a significant figure in the campaign for racial equality. (12 marks) - Assess the strengths of religious approaches to			Evaluate the view that there has been progress in gender equality. (12 marks) Assess the value of employing a religious perspective in the debate over race/gender/disability equality (12 marks)

Utilitarianism		Assess the success of utilitarianism as a useful way of resolving moral dilemmas. (12)			Evaluate the view that Utilitarianism continues to offer a useful way of resolving moral dilemmas. (30)
Situation Ethics		,
Natural Moral Law					Evaluate the view /that a proportionate approach to Natural Moral Law is most effective.
Sexual Ethics	Explore the contribution of a religious perspective to sexual ethics (8)
War and Peace		Assess the view that the Just War Theory is no longer relevant (12)			