Keysha-Rae comes from a diverse background in both the for-profit and non-profit sector. She holds a BA in Sociology from the best university in the state, WSU (Go Cougs!), and a MPS in Fashion Marketing. Following in her parents footsteps she comes from a long lineage of advocacy, helping others, and being a voice for her community. She continues to fight for social justice, equity, rebuilding our educational system, and eradicating houselessness. Keysha-Rae is also a Palmer Scholars mentor where she believes that pouring into and truly setting up ALL youth for success is more critical now than ever. She is grounded in relationship building which is a huge pillar of development as she is currently the Development Director for Communities In Schools of Renton-Tukwila-Lake Washington. Keysha-Rae recently added the new title of mom to her resume, as she is expecting her first child in September!
