

Dear AFREJ,

In our recent Learning for Action series, we read Levine and Harmon's Death of an American Jewish Community. We'd like to focus next on Action, even as we keep learning about Jewish history in relation to Roxbury, Dorchester, and Mattapan. You can read more about what we learned here

We are seeking ways to offer support for these communities and we're going to start with an opportunity to tutor and mentor students at Hyde Square Task Force.

Hyde Square Task Force is an amazing organization located in Jamaica Plain and serving students from grades 9 through 12 from Boston schools in programs that are academic, Afro-Latin arts-based, and geared toward building civic engagement and leadership in social justice activism.

Currently, Jóvenes en Acción welcomes volunteers to work with 9th and 10th-grade students during the spring session (April 3 - June 9). This group mentoring opportunity occurs at HSTF weekly on Mondays from approximately 4:15 - 5:45 pm. Executive Director, Celina Miranda "encourages volunteers to apply now so that we can complete their CORI/SORI, reference checks, and orientation prior to April 3rd."

There will be opportunities for 1 on 1 mentoring for juniors and seniors for next fall, and we'll let you know more about that later.

If you'd like to get more details or if you have specific questions about the opportunities available, feel free to reach out to the HSTF education manager Brittney Lewer (brittney@hydesquare.org).
