

Business Type: Local beauty parlour

Business Objective: to make the visitors book an appointment.

Funnel: search funnel

WINNER'S WRITING PROCESS

1. Who am I talking to?

- a. Females, London, 35+,
- b. £2k+ minimum
- c. They have already visited the saloon before (awareness level 3: problems aware, sophistication level is 5)

2. Where are they now?

- a. They are looking for help in the market to get a youthful appearance, take care of themselves to address specific/ professional problems.

3. What do I want them to do?

- a. I want them to click on my search (google business/ website) → book an appointment.

4. What do they need to see/feel/experience in order to take the action I want them to, based on where they are starting?

- a. I want to build trust with the audience. And make them believe that our services do work by displaying valuable testimonials.

- b. In the service section I want them to feel the emotion of actually getting treated.

Current state: They think that they look ugly and ageing makes them believe that it is true. They feel like they are not taking care of themselves. They want to address their problems that can only be cured with professionalised/ specialised treatments.

Dream state: they want to look young, feel pampered and solve their problems.

Roadblock: busy, cost, they don't know the solution that they need and don't know if the solution is going to work for them.

Solution: cure their problems, make them look young and feel pampered.

Products: visit the salon.

About us

Hi, I'm Bal Gill – Founder of Beauty Bar

Beauty has always been my passion, but my true mission is helping women feel confident and empowered in their own skin. From the start of my journey in beauty and holistic therapies, I knew I wanted to create a space where women could not only enhance their appearance but improve their overall well-being.

Inspired by my travels, I've blended Indian, Singaporean, and Western philosophies into the treatments I offer today. As a licensed Aesthetician, I'm constantly learning to bring you the best, most effective treatments.

Whether I'm working with women at London Fashion Week or right here in the salon, my greatest joy comes from seeing the transformation in both confidence and happiness. At Beauty Bar, my goal is simple: to create a space where you feel cared for and in expert hands. I've helped countless women love their skin and themselves, and I'm excited to help you do the same.
