

AMERICA'S NEXT ~~top model~~ MMA fighter

Season Three, Episode Two

Here we are, once again, it's the second episode of the third season of America's Next Top MMA Fighter.

As you know, I'm Tyra Banks and this is my show, my rules and everything that happens here is my decision. So help me, God.

We continue our shameless stealing of intellectual (ha) property by using existing reality TV to boost our ratings. Tonight's episode will be: America's Got Talent!

The only rule I am imposing is that all the contestants must wear a bikini or swimsuit for every challenge. If they don't, then I'm going to kick their asses out and send them home to their mommas.

This is still a swimsuit competition, so I will be critiquing the girls on their choice of attire. I'm doing this for two reasons. I'm contractually obligated to do so, and I like to look at hot chicks in hot bikinis.

To prove this competition isn't some kind of scam, I've enlisted the help of Howie Mandel, Heidi Klum, Sofia Vergara and Simon Cowell. Believe me when I tell you, these idiots don't come cheap!

Let's not forget, for the first three episodes the girls are in teams of two. If a team is in last place, both girls will be eliminated.

I'd wish the girls good luck, but I'm too much of a bitch for that to happen!

Duo Spectacular in Paradise

In this captivating episode of America's Got Talent, the stage is set in the breathtaking beauty of Hawaii as seven incredible teams of two take the spotlight. The stakes are high as one duo faces elimination, leaving the audience on the edge of their seats.

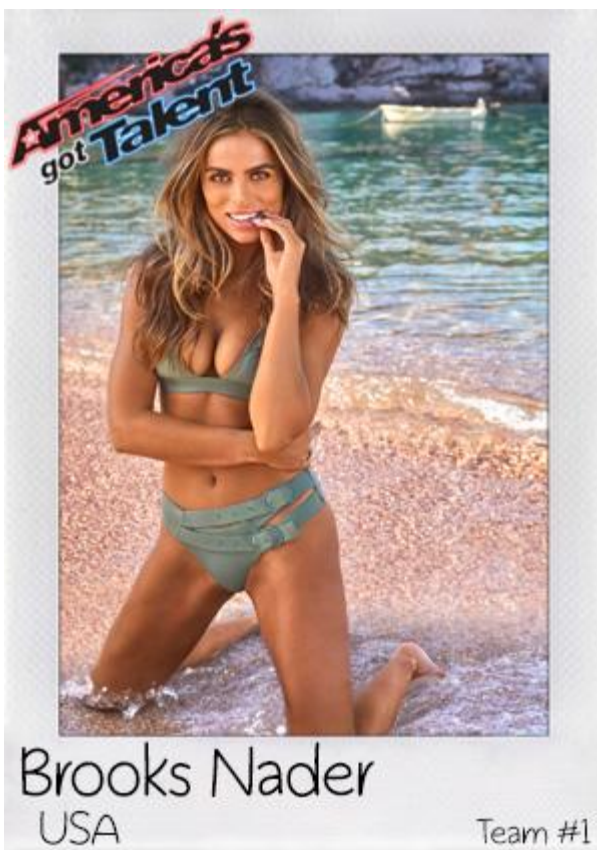

Team #1: Brooks & Yumi

The show kicks off with the team of Brooks Nader and Yumi Nu, mesmerizing the crowd with their impeccable synchronicity and jaw-dropping acrobatic maneuvers. Their gravity-defying stunts and graceful flips leave the judges and viewers in awe, setting a high bar for the evening.

Simon Cowell: "Yumi and Brooks, that was an explosive start to the show! Your strength, precision, and flawless synchronization were simply mind-blowing. You took risks and executed them flawlessly. Well done! Call me later, Brooks. I have something in my pants I need to show you."

Tyra's comments: "What the hell just I just watch? Yumi Nu doing acrobatics?"

"Let's talk about bikinis choices and if these two girls got what it takes to join Death By Bikini."

"I'll start with Brooks. This is an interesting bikini choice, I can certainly understand why you would go with something as sturdy as this design. The belt-like straps will keep the top and bottom in place while you're performing for this episode."

"The color suits you too, matching well with your skin tone. I'm impressed with your posing. On your knees and then sitting like you are, you allow for more of your body to be in the shot. I'm sure Kate and Chrissy at Death By Bikini will be keeping a close eye on you."

"Yumi, your choice to go for a strapless top is a bold one. Things could have gone astray during your performance. Not that I would have minded, any chance to see some nipple action is always gonna make mamma happy."

"You embrace your full figure with this bikini. The high cut briefs are showing off a lot of thigh, and girl, you have a lot of thigh to show off. DBB already has a plus size model on their roster, you're aiming to compete with Hunter, so get ready to expose as much of that flesh as you can!"

"I'm glad you took the robe off in the second shot. You have arms, let's see them."

"Solid work team one. Keep it up."

Team #2: Christen & Valentina

Next up is Christen Harper and Valentina Sampaio, performing as a dynamic pair of dancers who seamlessly blend various styles. Their routine is an electrifying fusion of contemporary and hip-hop, featuring mind-boggling footwork and captivating storytelling through movement. The audience is left spellbound by their fluidity and undeniable chemistry.

Heidi Klum: "Ladies, you two are a powerhouse of talent! The way you seamlessly merged different dance styles was pure magic. Your energy and chemistry on stage were palpable, and I couldn't take my eyes off you. Brilliant! Call me later, Christen. I have something in my panties I need to show you."

Tyra's comments: "Hold up. This isn't the Dancing With the Stars episode. Don't get ahead of yourselves!"

"Christen, I'll begin with your bikini and modeling critique. This bikini is a wonderful choice for you, I'm loving the colors and pattern, but it's the cute as fuck bow on your top that gets me. Honestly, I just want to pull on it until it comes loose. Yum, yum, yum."

“Your first pose is very similar to what Brooks was showing me. One arm across the body, just below the breasts. It’s a subtle way to push your boobs up and make them look fuller. Your other arm up towards your face, framing your tits and drawing attention to them. It’s a classic pose and I’m expecting to see more of it from all the remaining girls.”

“Valentina, this is a very bold choice of bikini. With a smaller bustline, this style does suit you, so I’ll give you credit for that. You’re posing is on point! I’m loving your first shot, with both arms up and your hands in your hair. As with Christen’s first shot, it’s a timeless pose. What it does for you, with your body type, is show off the definition in your abs.”

“Girl, you’ve got abs that even Raccoon would go ga-ga over.”

“You smolder in both your photos, that electric eye contact with the camera will melt the lens.”

“The two of you are formidable.”

Team #3: Tanaye & Duckie

Taking the stage with their ukuleles, Tanaye White and Duckie Thot enchant everyone with their soulful rendition of a popular hit. Their harmonies and skilled ukulele strumming create a unique and uplifting musical experience, transporting the audience to a tropical paradise.

Howie Mandel: "Duckie and Tanaye, you transported us to the heart of Hawaii with your beautiful ukulele performance. Your harmonies were like a soothing breeze, and I found myself completely lost in the music. It was a refreshing and joyful experience! Has anybody seen my pants? Simon, did you steal them again?"

Simon Cowell: "Fuck off, Howie. You twat."

Tyra's comments: "Ukuleles? Are you fucking kidding me?"

"The two of you chose to both wear bright white swimsuits for this round. I applaud you!"

"As a choice of color, the white is in stark contrast to your skin tone and it makes both your bodies and the swimsuit pop. Thankfully you both chose different styles, so you're not competing with each other, instead you're complimenting each other."

“Tanaye, this one-shoulder, cut-out swimsuit is so hot, I love it. I would have liked to have seen you from behind, as both your shots have you front on with your hands on your hips. Some variation would score you more points.”

“Duckie on the other hand has two poses. One with her arms above her head and one where she plays with the strings on her bikini bottoms.”

“I like both of these photos, Duckie. There's some great positioning of your hip in the first photo and although the second shot is less dramatic, the use of your hands and the look on your face are priceless.”

“Especially the look on your face, your saying to me ‘What the fuck are you looking at? I’m trying to take my bikini off for you? Be patient. You’ll be naked soon enough.’”

“And I like the sound of that, little Duckie.”

Team #4: Georgina & Olivia

Georgina Burke and Olivia Ponton, acting as a mind-bending illusionist duo, leave the judges questioning reality with their mind-boggling tricks. Their seamless sleight of hand, impossible disappearances, and mind-reading feats leave the audience gasping in disbelief. The sheer mystery and precision of their act have everyone captivated.

Sofia Vergara: "Girls, my mind is officially blown! You had me questioning my own eyes with your mind-bending illusions. Your act was a perfect combination of mystery, precision, and pure entertainment. I'm still trying to figure out how you did it! Did you cheat? Heidi, did you help them to cheat?"

Heidi Klum: "Piss off, Sofia. Now, has anyone seen my daughter? Leni, are you hanging out with those Badass Barbies again?"

Tyra's comments: "I despise magic. As a child I was scared of David Copperfield. I didn't enjoy this."

"The two of you are an interesting pairing. Georgina with her full figure and curves, and Olivia with her toned physique. Although, you look like you should eat a cheeseburger or two."

“I do like this red one piece suit on your, Georgina. It’s very smart of you to pull the material in like that just below your boobs. You show off a lot more skin, and I like that action.”

“I also like the change in angle in your photos and that your second shot is a lot closer to the camera.”

“But your pose is essentially the same in both shots. It’s great, but you need to work on finding other ways to manipulate what you’re wearing.”

“The turn of your body works well in your photos, Olivia. I love the second shot more than the first, which may seem a bit strange to you. Especially since in the first shot you have your arms above your head, in the classic pose I’ve already spoken about.”

“But in the second shot, the way you have your arms wrapped together, your face tilted up to face the sun and your eyes closed. It’s like the camera has captured you in a very personal and intimate moment. It’s a beautiful photograph.”

“I like seeing women during personal and intimate moments, but often they’re not able to be printed in a magazine.”

Team #5: Josephine & Natalie

Josephine Skriver and Natalie Mariduena, take the stage as a passionate pair of Argentine tango dancers, they grace the stage with their smoldering chemistry and precise footwork. Their performance is a fiery display of sensuality, emotion, and intricate lifts, leaving the judges and audience breathless with every step.

Simon Cowell: "Babes, you brought the heat to Hawaii! The passion, intensity, and impeccable footwork you showcased was outstanding. Every move was executed with such grace and emotion. It was like watching a passionate love story unfold on that stage. Fantastic!"

Howie Mandel: "I still can't find my pants."

Tyra's comments: "More dancing? I suppose you two were at least passionate. Now kiss!"

"Awww. You didn't kiss each other."

"Josephine, you gave me two very similar shots. Both front on, both with your hair in the same position, both with the same expression on your face."

"To be honest, you're borderline boring. Of course, you have a smoking body. But that's not enough. If this were a previous season of ANTMMAF, I'd kick you the fuck out. Get yo shit together, girl."

"As for you, Natalie. You're a story of two halves. First half, with your hands above your head, on your knees and a smile on your face, you're rocking it. I love it."

"Second half. WTF. You look bored. So I'm bored. This ain't a catalog photoshoot, hun."

"You also need to get yo shit together."

"In my eyes, the two of you are in the weeds."

Team #6: Marquita & Kamie

Injecting humor into the evening, the Comedy Duo of Marquita Pring and Kamie Crawford tickles the audience's funny bone with their hilarious skit. Their impeccable comedic timing, quick-witted banter, and slapstick humor create an atmosphere of laughter and delight, earning them thunderous applause.

Heidi Klum: "What a Comedy Duo, you ladies had us laughing from start to finish! Your comedic timing and chemistry were on point. It's not easy to make people laugh, but you did it effortlessly. I can't wait to see what you have in store for us next!"

Simon Cowell: "Howie laughed so much he split his pants! Oh wait, he has no pants!"

Howie Mandel: "Eat shit and die, Cowell."

Tyra's comments: "Personally, I thought you two were as funny as a funeral."

"That is a fantastic choice of swimsuit, Marquita. The cut-out between your tits is a great way to show some skin. You have a fantastic body, actually let me rephrase that, you have a fantastic body for MMA. In my opinion you look like the kind of woman who could kick ass all day and then fuck all night."

"These are two great photos, too. The first shot of you striding towards the camera lens sends shivers down my spine. A woman ready for action!"

"In your second shot, Marquita, you're on your knees with your arms up. The traditional swimsuit model shot that we all know and love. You pull it off with perfection and ease."

"Kamie, I'm less impressed with you. The jacket? I'm not feeling it. You didn't need it, especially in your first photo where I get a great profile of your ass. The jacket distracts and obscures your booty. Girl, you got ass. Show it the fuck off."

"Your second photo is OK. It's fine. It's boring. Next time, turn up the heat."

Team #8: Lorena & Leyna

Closing the show, Lorena Duran and Leyna Bloom take the audience on an adrenaline-pumping journey with their aerial acrobatics. Their breathtaking aerial silk routine combines strength, flexibility, and daring drops, leaving spectators in awe of their gravity-defying skills.

Howie Mandel: "Lorena and Leyna, you took our breath away with your stunning aerial acrobatics. Your strength, grace, and fearlessness were truly remarkable. You pushed the boundaries of what's possible and created a visually stunning performance. Bravo!"

Heidi Klum: "I totally agree with you, Howie."

Sofia Vergara: "Stop sucking up, Heidi."

Heidi Klum: "You're just jealous that I'm fighting for Hellfire now, and you're not."

Sofia Vergara: "Fuck you, bitch."

Tyra's comments: "Wow. Tension much? I should be recruiting Heidi and Sofia, not you two tramps."

"Interesting bikini choice, Lorena. I'm not entirely convinced. It just seems a little confusing to me. But I am currently high on an insane amount of cocaine. So I could just be tripping."

"Nice first pose, Lorena. You're on your knees, as so many other women in this round have been. But your choice to put your hands on your hips, rather than above your head is commendable. By doing so you're pushing out your chest. Not that you need to, those things look pretty fine to me!"

"Did it hurt kneeling on those pebbles?"

"Now, Leyna. Wow. Rainbow much?"

"While I'll give you points for the color palette, everything else is just off. BORING."

"Sort your shit out, bitch."

Judging

After a series of stunning performances, the judges face the difficult decision of eliminating one duo from the competition. Tension fills the air as the fate of these incredible talents hangs in the balance, ensuring a nail-biting conclusion to this episode of America's Got Talent: Duo Performances.

After the performances, the judges deliberate on their decision.

Simon Cowell: "It's been an incredible night of talent. Each duo brought something unique and exceptional to the stage."

Heidi Klum: "Absolutely! It's going to be a tough decision, but we have to choose one duo to eliminate."

Howie Mandel: "I agree. They all gave their best tonight, but unfortunately, we have to make a difficult choice."

Sofia Vergara: "I wish we could keep them all, but that's the nature of the competition. Let's hope the duo we eliminate gets another chance to shine in the future."

The judges announce their decision and bid farewell to Tanaye White and Duckie Thot. Despite their ukulele skills, they just weren't up to the high level required to continue.
