

5.4 - Zlomeniny - Fractures

You can use mít with the adjective zlomený 'broken' to indicate that something is broken (just make sure to change the ending depending on what it's modifying). Remember, that after the verb mít you will also need to put the body parts (and the adjective) into the accusative case.

Karel má zlomený prst.

Zdeněk má zlomenou ruku.

*Lucie má zlomenou klíční kost.
