

2.6 - Grammatical Subjects

The subject of a verb is the “doer” of an action. Take a look at the following sentences with the subject underlined:

I am running.

Bára exercises a lot.

She is dancing.

They are skiing.

My friend is eating.

Jan and Marie are talking.