VOLUNTEERS

2022-2023 School Year Update:

Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS) appreciates the support of the parent and community volunteers who support the essential needs of the schools. Volunteers and partnership agencies are required to complete certain compliance measures in order to volunteer within our school district.

- Online Recognizing Child Abuse and Neglect Training via their myMCPS Classroom/Canvas account
(Gradesheet will show 100% for successful completion)
- COVID-19 Vaccination Attestation
Gradesheet will show 83.3% for successful completion)
- Fingerprinting/Background check (only if the volunteer is working alone with students without supervision of an MCPS staff member or other type of volunteer service, per the Volunteers Regulation and FAQ)

MCPS has created a step-by-step User-Guide (with pictures) on how volunteers can create and access their myMCPS Classroom/Canvas account to complete the Online Recognizing Child Abuse and Neglect Training module AND upload the Certificate of COVID-19 Vaccination from the state Department of Health.

The online course grade sheet will show a total of 100% for completion of both

Volunteers: Vaccinations & Exemptions

At this current time proof of vaccination MUST be submitted online through myMCPS classroom.

- Names on the approved list will only show if the volunteer has done BOTH the online Child Abuse and Neglect Training AND the vaccination attestation.
- If this expectation ever changes, school principals and volunteer liaisons will be immediately notified and the website and appropriate guidance documents will be updated to reflect any changes.

If there is a volunteer who has a medical or religious exemption, the volunteer can submit it to Mr. Khalid Walker via email at: Khalid\_D\_Walker@mcpsmd.org. He will address each submission as he does for MCPS staff.
