

FIREFLOW WEDDINGS

WEDDING DECK

INTRODUCTION

I'm Samuel, the filmmaker and photographer behind Fireflow Weddings.

For the past seven years I've been documenting weddings—and about 3 years ago I started Fireflow Weddings to challenge the old, conservative way of doing it. I saw couples being posed into moments that didn't feel like them. I wanted the opposite: real, honest memories—captured in both photos and film—that feel like you.

My style is minimalist, warm, and documentary—some might call it editorial. No heavy piano tracks or predictable, chronological montages. I'm after energy and intimacy. A cinematic feeling that doesn't just record your day, but lets you relive it—today, and decades from now. Images you'd proudly hang on your wall, and a film that brings the day back to life.

Most of my weddings are around North Zealand and Copenhagen, but I also follow couples to Tuscany and Umbria in Italy, the Swedish archipelago, and beyond.

What drives me most is working with you. Being invited into your love story is an honour, and I'm here to craft memories that will last a lifetime. In thirty years, I want you to press play with old friends, new friends—and the next generation—and feel the day all over again. If my films and photos can do that, I couldn't ask for more.

WHY COUPLES CHOOSE US

Josefine & Jacob

“Vi kan kun anbefale alle til at gøre brug af Fireflow Weddings til deres begivenhed. Vi havde fornøjelsen af Fireflow Weddings som hhv. fotograf og videograf til mit bryllup, og udover de er skønne mennesker at være omkring, så har de simpelthen også fanget de dejligste øjeblikke af dagens begivenheder, sådan at det føles som om man genoplever dagen igen. Kæmpe, kæmpe anbefaling og alle 5 stjerner værdige!”

Sofie & Magnus

“Super professionelle fotografer, der fangede hele vores store dag fra start til slut. Da vi tog portrætter var de vildt opmuntrende og gjorde, at vi følte os 100% trygge. Kan klart anbefale Fireflow Weddings til enhver der skal giftes!”

Cecilia & Valdemar

Vi kunne ikke have ønsket os bedre fotografer end Fireflow Weddings! Fra start til slut var de utrolige professionelle og behagelige at have med på dagen.

De formåede at fange alle de store øjeblikke, men også de små detaljer og stemninger, som gør billederne helt særlige. Vi er simpelthen så glade for resultatet – billederne er smukke, naturlige og fyldt med følelser.

Vi kan varmt anbefale Fireflow Weddings til alle, der ønsker fotografer, som både leverer fantastiske billeder og en fantastisk oplevelse på dagen.

Junia & Bio

Christina & Casper

*“De mest perfekte dage med de bedste mennesker omkring os i vidunderlige omgivelser lige midt i Toscana. Vi takker dybt for jeres fantastiske arbejdsindsats, det har været den største fornøjelse af have jer med til at dokumentere vores store dag”
– Kæmpe anbefaling herfra!*

Freja & Lasse

Vi havde en virkelig god oplevelse med Fireflow Weddings/Samuel. Det er ikke hvem som helst man har lyst til at have til stede på ens bryllupsdag, men Samuel fik det til at føles naturligt og var rigtig godt selskab. Super smukke billeder der levede op til alle vores ønsker og mere til. Tusind tak!

COUPLE SHOOT

For us, your story comes first. We keep it personal, effortless, and close. The couple session is your quiet pause from the wedding rush—a space to breathe and be yourselves. We lean into the small things that make you “you”: the laugh you share, a glance that says everything, the way your hands find each other.

We can wander somewhere meaningful, echo a scene you love, or keep it simple and honest. This shoot adds an unstaged, human layer to your film—so in thirty years, you won’t just remember the day, you’ll feel the love that made it all possible.

“Best footage” vs. “Raw footage”

Best footage → A curated, color-graded selection of the most meaningful clips, arranged chronologically (typically 1–2 hours, depending on events). Includes B-roll; does not include full speeches or the entire ceremony. Raw footage → Everything we shot, unedited and in LOG (flat, ungraded). Large files, not polished—perfect if you want the complete archive.

Payment & instalments

To secure your date, we take a 50% booking fee.

Prefer instalments? We're flexible—tell us what works and we'll set up a plan that keeps things smooth and stress-free.

Custom packages

Absolutely. If you have a specific vision—multi-day celebrations, multiple countries, added privacy needs—we'll tailor the coverage and deliverables to fit. Tell us what you have in mind and we'll design the perfect fit for your story.
