

INTRODUCING MEGHAN DUGGAN

CLASSROOM
CHAMPIONS[®]
how better gets better and better

Meghan Duggan is from Danvers, MA. She learned to skate at just 3 years old. Her older brother Bryan played hockey and she wanted to be just like him.

Meghan grew up playing soccer, softball and lacrosse. At a young age, Meghan always said she would be an Olympian!

Just like that she set goals and strived to meet them, going to the 2010 and 2014 Olympics! She became Captain of the Olympic Champions U.S. Hockey Team in 2018 where they won a gold medal. Her team was also named ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year.

Performance Stats:

3x Olympic Medalist
(2 Silver, 1 Gold)

8x World Championship Medalist

FUN FACT!

Meghan loves to sing! She actually auditioned for the “The Voice” and moved on past the first round.
