

Penn State Schuylkill Carnival of Hope Thursday, October 14, 2021

Share thoughts of hope for current patients and survivors of any form of cancer, or thoughts of remembrance for any loved ones with any type of cancer. We are a community who stands together and remembers together.

Add your hopeful thoughts for current patients, remembrance of those lost, and encouragement for survivors.

Love to Heaven for my mom, Michelle Smith. 10 years hasn't made it easier. I love you and miss you.

Hope to my Aunt Charlotte. I pray they truly got all of the cancer.

Add your hopeful thoughts for current patients, remembrance of those lost, and encouragement for survivors.

Add your hopeful thoughts for current patients, remembrance of those lost, and encouragement for survivors.

Add your hopeful thoughts for current patients, remembrance of those lost, and encouragement for survivors.

Add your hopeful thoughts for current patients, remembrance of those lost, and encouragement for survivors.

Add your hopeful thoughts for current patients, remembrance of those lost, and encouragement for survivors.

