Video about Literacy Source

Thank you for volunteering to talk about Literacy Source!

Right now, teachers are making a video about our school. The video is for donors. Donors are people who give money to our school.

We are asking students to be in the video.

A few weeks ago, you said “Maybe! Yes!”

Do you still want to be in the video? You can choose camera on or off. If you want to, we will start preparing today.

Permission

I need to write down your permission to be in the video. The video will be shown to all of our donors.

It will also be public on the Literacy Source website. That means any person who visits our website might see the video.

I will ask you some questions. Tell me YES, it's ok or NO, it's not ok.

Here are
