Share the opinions about Peter.

MY TEACHERS believe that I am a hard-working student. They tell me that I seem to be really trying my best to finish my school work and maintain my good grades. Sometimes they think I am lazy because I do not pass my work on time.

MY FRIENDS say that I am a talented person because I can sing, dance and act. They think that I'm a snob, but I don't know why. I'm not a snob. Others think I am nice and fun to be with.

MY PARENTS think that I am lazy, because I don't want to help with the household chores. In their opinion, I am talkative and too noisy because whenever we're talking, it seems that I'm talking to a person who is far away from me and once I start talking — I talk and talk until I've run out of stories.

I THINK OF MYSELF as an ambitious person because I set up high goals in football for myself. I have high goals for my career and I try to be a success in school.
