Dramatic Arts Class

A black and white photograph of three young men in a rehearsal space. The man on the left is wearing a t-shirt and has his hands raised in a dramatic gesture, looking upwards. The man in the middle is wearing a dark t-shirt and has his mouth open as if shouting or singing, with his right hand raised. The man on the right is wearing a tank top and a headband, looking to the right. The background shows a doorway and some equipment.

BAND- BND 221/222

Students wishing to joining the award winning Greenbrier Bands who are not already members should stop by the band room to speak with Dr. Toney or Mr. Boykin!

The background is a watercolor-style gradient. It starts with a teal color at the top, transitions through light green and yellow in the middle, and ends with warm orange and red tones at the bottom. The texture is soft and painterly, with visible brushstrokes and color blending.
