

Write a personal profile to share on your blog.

Your blog has been created to share your learning. Remember there are people you know, and people you don't know, who can view your profile.

1. Decide what personal information you want to share about yourself.
2. Is all the information in your personal profile OK to share?
3. If you are not sure keep your personal information private.

Paragraph 1: Introduce yourself, share some information about you e.g. name, school, culture and family.

Paragraph 2: Share some information about you as a learner e.g. What you are good at? What do you enjoy? What are your challenges? What are your goals for this year?

Paragraph 3: Finish your profile with some information about what you looking forward to this year e.g. personal achievements, something or somebody who inspires you, sharing your learning on your blog, connecting with others.

Copy and paste each of your paragraphs below to create your blog profile

Insert photos or drawings below to compliment your blog profile.

Tip: Paste and Match Style

Are you copying text from a Google Doc or a website to paste into a new blog post?

You want all your text size and fonts to match or be the same style.

Use the keyboard short cuts to copy then paste and match style.

Copy

ctrl

C

Paste

ctrl

shift

V