A vibrating litter scoop, you could sell it as a cheaper alternative to an automatic litter box. Just add a motor that shakes the scoop for you at the press of a button. Make it out of an aluminum alloy and voila, you have the best tool to deal with cat excrement on the market.

Since there's a Catholic dude tweeting hot takes about how his wife's health justifies their contraception use, let me say: No. Never. Under any circumstances.

Mrs. Geekdom — who has health issues there — and I will refuse every time. Because it's wrong. Because it's not loving.

I don't say this to brag about my moral uprightness—I have many failures in that department—but we need witnesses to the truth of Catholic doctrine, to draw a line in the sand, and the only way to do that on social media is to share your own experience.

Mrs. Geekdom and I have had 7 kids. All her pregnancies are high risk. They're terrible. Hyperemesis. One near-stillbirth. A placental abruption. An apparent miscarriage (but OL of Lourdes worked a miracle). A still birth. 6 caesareans. "Geriatric" maternal age.

New rule: if you use someone having a blue check as a negative you have nothing to say or contribute. It's such a tribalistic and idiotic reduction that has no attribution. You're just telling everyone you have no argument and want to act petty. It's transparent.

Why Me? by Catturd.

I'm exhausted - mentally and physically. This Catturd thing has been a 5 year rollercoaster ride. I basically work 7 days a week; no days off, no vacations. I don't even know how I got here. I often ask, why me?

... how I've gained such a large following - sometimes I think it's my luck. Most the larger accounts on the conservative side have lived a very different life than me. In short, they did most everything right and I did almost everything wrong - lol.

... I wouldn't get a more flawed and imperfect person than me. Although I've never been in trouble with the law, arrested, and only had one traffic ticket in my life - I was aimlessly adrift for many of my early years.

I joined the Army at 17-years-old, once my service was over - I basically started immediately screwing up. I was so lost. I had several failed marriages when I was way too young and had no idea what love was. Then I spent over a decade as a hippie musician, growing my hair, carefree, smoking weed, drinking too much, and even using some hard drugs. (I even had a VW hippie van - lol) I was homeless at one point, living in a tent beside a lake for months. I fought alcoholism pretty hard during these times and still have to watch myself today.

Don't get me wrong, I don't regret a moment of my life, because I strongly believe it takes lots of failures to become successful at anything.

I finally seemed to get my shit together around the age of 40. It took me long enough - lol.

At the age of 54, I decided to join social media for the first time because I suddenly got arthritis in my fingers where I lost the ability to play guitar. I was lost again and needed some kind of artistic outlet. Sometimes I think Catturd saved me in a way.

With this reach and when you truly speak your mind, The Left will viscously try to destroy you. YOU MUST BE SILENCED and it never ends.

For just giving my honest opinions, I've been doxxed, harassed, 100 hit pieces written about me, people come by house and scream obscenities, tons of death threats, and on and on. Everyone I've known for 40 years and many of my family members have been bullied and relentlessly harassed for years.

Sometimes I don't know why a screw-up like me was give this much reach. I pray every night I'll use this opportunity the right way to help as many people as possible - and pets. I'm always struggling in which direction to go.

I can honestly say, however, the love I get from my followers pushes me through the hard times, when I'm exhausted or down. Whether it's on social media or on our podcast, I try to make people laugh every day to ease the pain of what this country is going through.

In closing on this novel, I feel so blessed to have the support and love from so many of you. I don't claim to be perfect, but I'll always give you my raw and unfiltered opinions, right or wrong. I'm not afraid and I'm fighting for this country as hard as I can.

All of you saved me - I love you all.

If the woman really loves the man, as soon as her genitals reach the man's, she silently sucks up his organ within herself.

The man has no need to make any effort.

If the woman's love is strong, her body sucks up his organ as air is sucked up into an empty space.

It FEELS true.

You are stuck in a fundamentally outdated view of reality. You think you live in a Newtonian world of celestial clockwork, of perfect rationality.

You don't.

Placebos can outperform medicines.
Particles can become waves.
Sometimes, what FEELS true, BECOMES true.

Cannabis today is absolutely insane.

It's now normal for millions of people to get absurdly high every day.

The average dad with "back pain" is getting more stoned, every single day, than the most degenerate bong-ripper I ever knew back in high school.

Let me tell you a story about how I learned this.

Last night, I needed some pipe cleaners for my tobacco pipe so I went to the sketchy "smoke shop" down the street.

Pipe cleaners are only $2.50 and I needed to cross $5 to use my card.

I said, I've heard about CBD, that's chill right? It's just like, relaxing or something? Just give me some CBD thing.

He gave me a small pack of just 2 CBD gummies for $3. He said "These are popular, very chill. Slight anti-anxiety effect, good to take before bed."

Curious, I ate one at 9pm, figuring I'd probably just go to bed a little earlier than my normal time around 11pm.

Before I know it, the time is 3:30am and I'm researching near-death experiences to understand what the afterlife really means.

And that's a LOW DOSE of a popular, LOW KEY cannabis product on the market today.

I cannot believe it. We legalized and scientifically optimized what used to be a relatively weak social drug into normalized CRACK that people use alone for everyday life. Maybe the most insane change of the past decade that remains way underestimated.;

Your Uber driver transporting you 40mph in a steel cage is baked to high heaven.

When you go into a store, you're really going into a multidimensional la-la-land. Everyone around you is blitzed to the gills, they don't even see you, they're just looking for level 2 in their own personal wormhole.

The entire physical public sphere in America today is an open air crack den, invisible beneath a thin veneer of pseudo-functional metaverse complex.
