

Tents for Talking

About Reading

Click “File”

Click “Make a Copy”

Save this to your own Google drive so you can access and edit without changing the original.

Click Here
for the printable PDF version

Short Story Tent

What happens right after the turning point in the story is...

What's interesting about the antagonist is...

One of the smaller conflicts in the story is...

If I could change the resolution, I would...

The first sign of trouble (the inciting incident) is when...

Short Story Tent

My favorite part of the rising action is when...

The protagonist (main character) seems...

I can tell that the setting...

The title is meaningful because...

The most significant conflict happens when...

Short Story Tent - Post Reading

The way the protagonist coped with the conflict was...

Another good title for this story could be...

The antagonist makes me think...

The most significant change I see in the protagonist is ...

Short Story Tent - Post Reading

One thing I noticed about the protagonist is...

A good summary of the story is...

An example of internal conflict is when...

I wish the antagonist in the story would...

Poetry Tent

The best example of imagery in this selection is...

The title is meaningful because...

The author's use of personification is to...

This onomatopoeia affects the meaning by...

I see a simile that compares...

Poetry Tent

Something that seems important and symbolic in the poem is...

If I could summarize the poem in two sentences, I would say...

The author's use of imagery helps me understand...

The use of alliteration makes it sound like...

I see a metaphor that shows...

Poetry Tent

The use of repetition makes me think that...

A part of the poem I'm a little confused about is...

The speaker in the poem is saying that...

My favorite example of figurative language in the poem is...

A good summary of the poem is...

Poetry Tent

The tone (author's attitude) in the poem is...

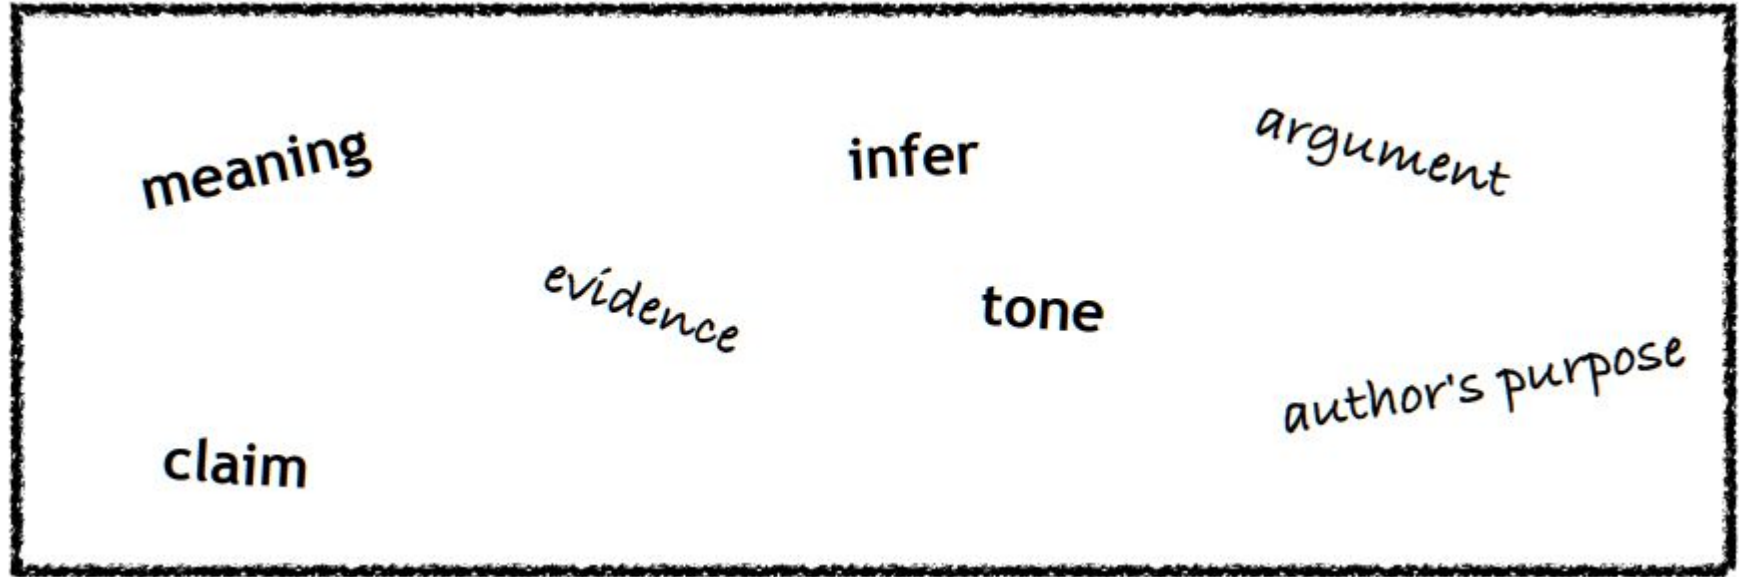

The author's message about life is...

A line in the poem that stands out to me is...

Another good title for this poem could be...

What I notice about the stanza or stanzas is that...

Info: Expository Tent

Info: Expository Tent

counter-argument

bias

details

persuasive

reasons

factual

opinion

Figurative Language Tent

The best example of imagery in this selection is...

The title is meaningful because...

The author's use of personification is to...

This onomatopoeia affects the meaning by...

I see a simile that compares...

Figurative Language Tent

Something that seems important and symbolic in the selection is...

If I could summarize the passage in two sentences, I would say...

The author's use of imagery helps me understand...

The use of alliteration makes it sound like...

I see a metaphor that shows...

Literary NonFiction Tent

The author of this text wants the reader to understand . . .

The narrator's experience was impactful to him or her because . . .

An important idea expressed in the text is . . .

The sentence that best expresses the main message of the narrator's experience is . . .

A theme expressed in the story centers on . . .

Literary NonFiction Tent

The best summary of this selection is . . .

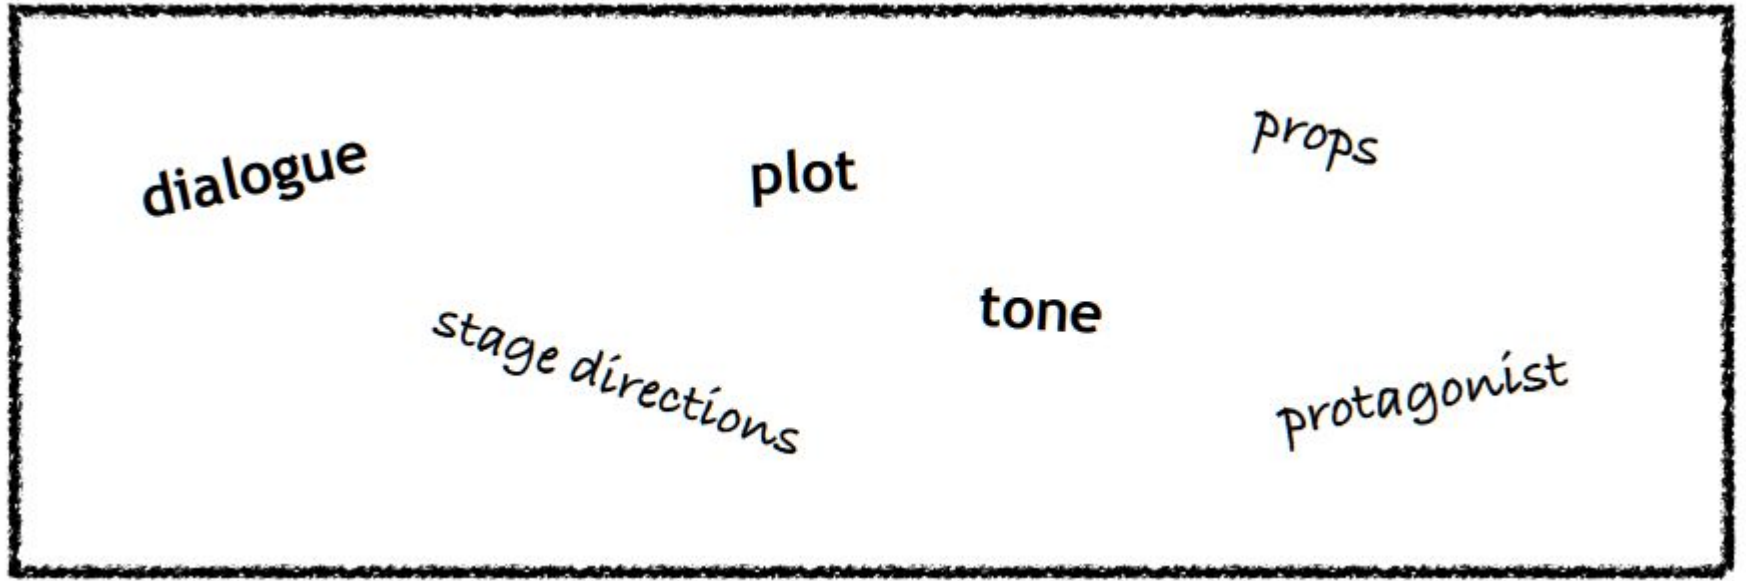

If I could summarize the passage in two sentences, I would say...

I can tell what the author was feeling because of tone words like . . .

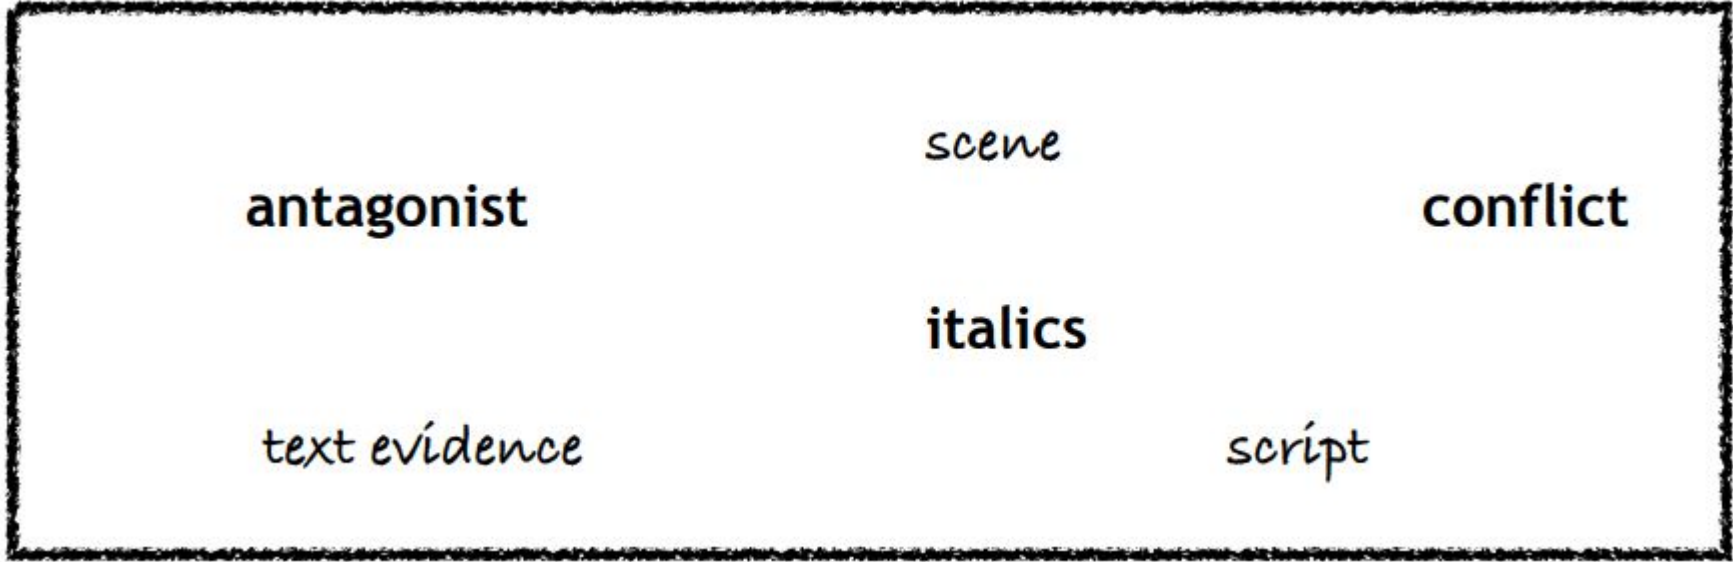

From the point of view of the narrator, I can tell that he or she is a person who . . .

The main conflict the narrator had to deal with or overcome was. . .

Drama Tent

Drama Tent

Writing Revision

“Right now, what I’m thinking is ... “

“What surprised me was...”

“I want to revise _____ in my draft because...”

“One of the revisions I made was _____ because...”

Writing Revision

“Read your draft aloud the way you think it should sound.”

“One question I have about your draft is...”

“About your draft, I’d like to say that...”

“While you were reading your draft, I wondered...”

More FREE Resource & Strategies for Easier Teaching

OPTION A

>> CLICK HERE<<

Centers & Stations in the Middle School
ELA Classroom
(Easy - Realistic - Actionable)

OPTION B

>> CLICK HERE<<

Realistic Ways to Differentiate in the Middle School ELA
Class
(Without going nuts)

OPTION C

>> CLICK HERE<<

Test Prep Strategies
*(That Your Students Will Never Guess are
for Test Prep!)*