JUNE 8, 2021

PENANG FLOATING MOSQUE

Masjid Terapung or the Floating Mosque was built in 2004 in a bid to replace an older mosque which was damaged in the year's major tsunami disaster. The mosque is an architectural wonder with its Moorish design, seven-storey-high towering minarets and 360-degree panoramic view of the sea. It's the first mosque in the country to be built on the sea, with pillars and stilts supporting its majestic structure.

SHORE EXCURSIONS (PHUKET, THAILAND)

JUNE 9, 2021

PHUKET BIG BUDDHA

The Phuket Big Buddha is one of the island's most distinctive landmarks. Spectacular 360-degree views greet you once you reach the summit, where this 45-meter-high monument presides. Faced with white jade marble, the statue was constructed in 2004.

SHORE EXCURSIONS (PHUKET, THAILAND)

RAWAI VILLAGE

To experience a more authentic side of Phuket, venture out to this small village on the island's east coast to glimpse the lifestyle of the Moken, a tribe of "sea gypsies." They have roots in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, and have remained staunchly committed to their own beliefs and customs. Some live by the sea and others choose a semi-nomadic life on land. The men of the village work mostly as fishermen and sometimes also as guides for sea trips.

SHORE EXCURSIONS (PHUKET, THAILAND)

WAT CHALONG

Wat Chalong is the largest, most popular, and arguably the most beautiful of all Phuket's 29 temples. It is dedicated to two highly respected monks, Luang Pho Chaem and Luang Pho Chuang, and you can see life-size wax models of them and other figures in the exhibition home.
