and MONROE COUNTY

The Camp Cory Alumni Association established a digitization program in 2015. The primary mission of the program is to serve the Camp Cory alumni community and the general public by providing digital access to the unique collection of Camp Cory Culminaries. Digital collections are openly available for a variety of purposes - nostalgia, teaching, research, learning, and entertainment. The Camp Cory alumni community values digital access to this growing body of unique materials that document the history of Camp Cory. These digitized archival collections provide evidence of institutional activities and decision-making, as well as the activities of individuals and organizations. Digital access to these materials enhances their use, ensures accountability, and provides broader access to historical records.

The nature of historical materials is such that some material may represent positions, norms, and values that are no longer (or never were) consistent with the positions, norms, and values of YMCA Camp Cory, the YMCA of Greater Rochester, or the YMCA of the USA. Some materials that are part of our digital collections may be considered offensive. This project strives to provide context for these items through descriptive records, and where considered necessary, statements attached to the digitized object that provide a warning about potentially sensitive content.

Specific objections to materials will be addressed in accordance with the Camp Cory Alumni Association mission and this policy, which is informed by best practices, codes of ethics, and responsible and sensitive handling of cultural materials. Possible actions may include but are not limited to the following:

- The identified materials remain available online with no change
- Provision of additional descriptive information to provide context for the materials in question

In rare cases, removal of materials from online access may be considered. However, the Camp Cory Alumni Association places an extremely high value on providing access and context. Therefore, this option may be considered only in exceptional circumstances.

The Camp Cory Alumni Association supports the principle of freedom of access to information for every user and proudly endorses the American Library Association \(ALA\)'s Library Bill of Rights; ALA's Access to Digital Information, Services, and Networks: An Interpretation of the Library Bill of Rights; the ACRL-SAA Joint Statement on Access: Guidelines for Access to Original Research Materials; the ACRL Code of Ethics for Special Collections Librarians; and the Society of American Archivists \(SAA\)'s Core Values Statement and Code of Ethics.

YOUR

CULMINARY

Everything good has its beginning. The mason begins with a brick, the baker with flour, the carpenter with his piece of wood.

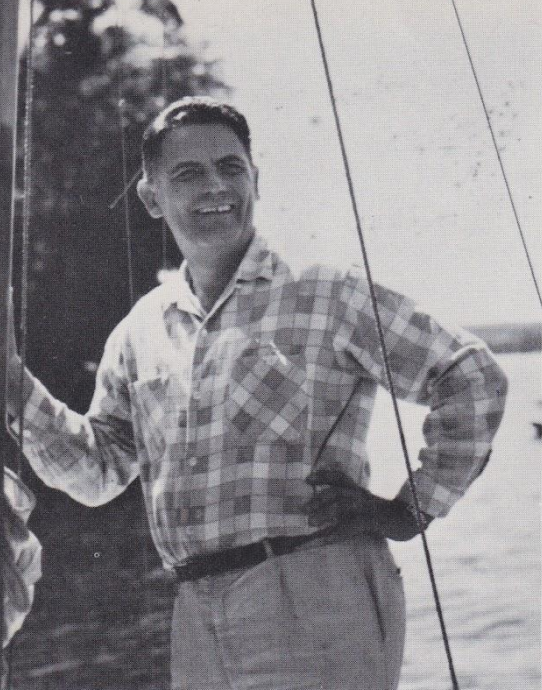

Your summer at Cory begins with this sign, a landmark of Camp, marking the entrance to "fun" and "adventure".

Cory, the boys camp of the YMCA of Rochester and Monroe County has had a long and successful history.

This success has been achieved through the many fine staffs throughout the years. They have dedicated themselves in providing you with activities to develop the best in Spirit, Mind and Body.

YOUR CULMINARY for 1960 is dedicated to all those who have made Cory what it is today—one of America's finest camps.

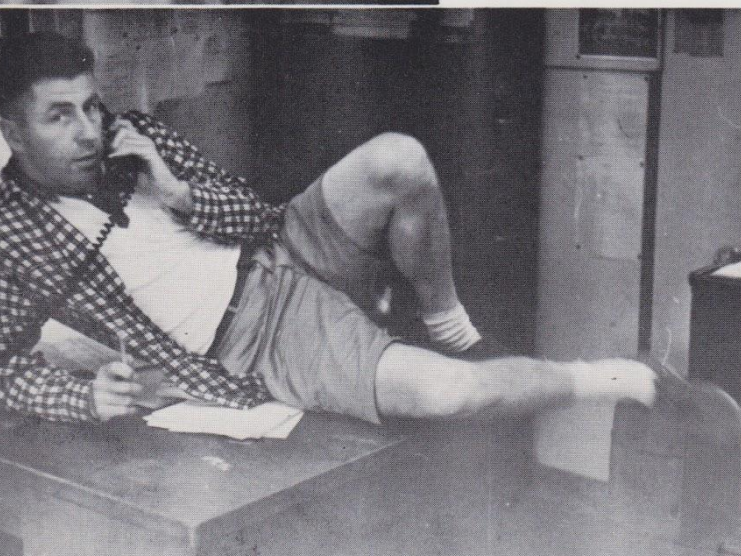

Yes, I think it is a boat.

Yep, it looks broken.

You say your son has lost his—WHAT?

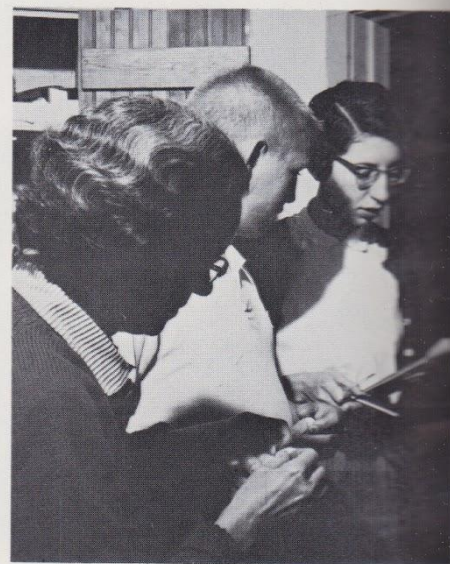

Aw go on, you take the boathouse tonight.

Greetings from Camp Cory. Even though its cold and wintry we still can look back and remember all the good times at camp.

You've got lots of memories I know, the following pages will help bring many of them back again to life.

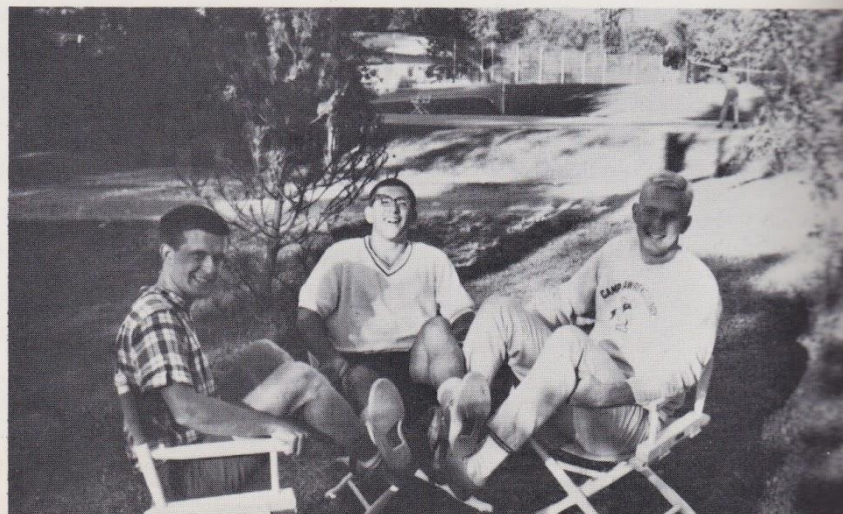

These familiar faces you've seen time and time again—imagine them if you can spouting out with these "words of wisdom"——

I give up—HOW?

We just don't understand it, temperature 98.6.

Now, get that trunk down from the attic, dust off all that camp equipment and get ready for the 1961 Camping Season. You say its too early, never. Time flies on the Wings of Swiftness and before you know it June will be here, and camp just a hop, skip and a jump away. I'm ready, how about you?

The 1960 Counselors-In-Training worked very hard to make Cory's program as successful as it was. These fellows are selected because they have demonstrated their leadership ability, camping skills, and sincere desire to become part of the Cory Tradition. Their tasks are limitless, their help invaluable, their enthusiasm boundless—dishwashers, stewards, storekeepers, village and cabin aides and assisting in instructional club periods, round out a CIT's working day. CITs are responsible for attending classes to prepare them for future positions on the Cory Staff—camping skills, camper problems and techniques along with camp philosophy are thoroughly discussed. "All work and no play makes one a dull fellow," someone once said—CITs have their opportunity for enjoyment as organized recreation is provided them. Trips to Camp Onanda (YWCA), roller skating, movies, and Rose-land Park keep spirit high. Gus Hemmett took charge of the CIT program this year and established a fine agenda with these young men. A program of knowledge, responsibility, and recreation. The CIT program helps Cory build future leadership for our program and also helps these young men develop into fine mature individuals. Our hats off to 1960's CITs for a job well done.

TYPICAL

EVENTS

STATE

So who cares, I didn't catch nothin'

Bet I can eat more than you.

FAIR

Come one, come all, to the FAIR. Camp Cory's State Fair was held first period this year amid a splendid Midway. Morning saw us preparing for the afternoons carnival. A big parade was held, each cabin entered an animal or other interesting carnival character. The parade was led by that majestic parade master Tom Avery. The afternoon was filled with excitement. The CIT's had a real scary Spook House. Many booths were prepared and all tried their skill.

The evening Grandstand Show was directed by Roger Brown and Jim Mulholland with Bob Alford presiding. Western Atmosphere was present everywhere and the Camp Cory Saloon opened to a packed house. We all hit the sack that night after a very exhilarating and wonderful day.

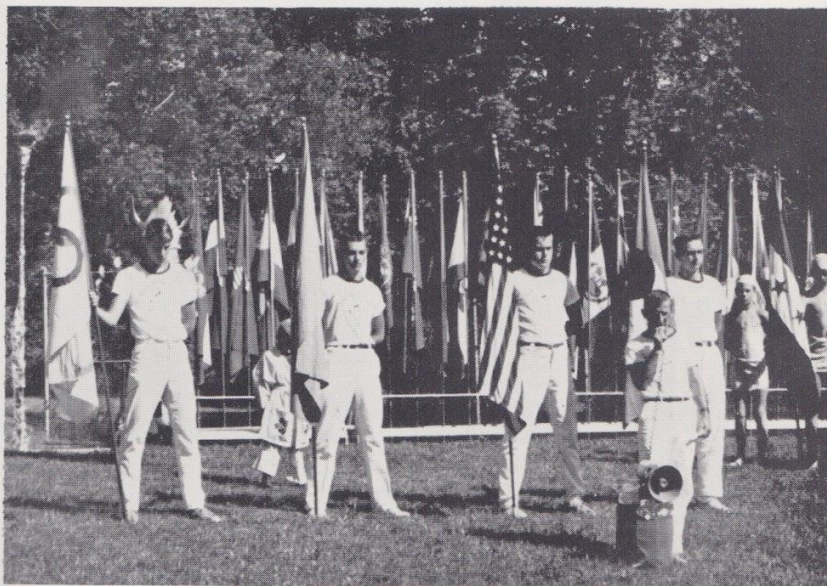

Ooooooh, Wonderful—it tickles.

INTERNATIONAL DAYS

During the second period Cory held its longest and most vivid of Special Days. International Days was ushered in by an impressive Parade of Flags followed by the official opening of the Olympics.

The Folk Festival held that evening was a delightful and entertaining show directed by Tom Witmer and Nick Colovus, each cabin or tribe presented a folk skit of the nation they represented.

Our Land Olympics were held in Penn Yan and also in Junior Camp. At the evening meal tables were gaily decorated to again represent the particular country. The final event of this extra special day was the International Brotherhood Vesper Service. The candlelight ceremony certainly brought us closer to our fellow brothers around the world.

WATER CARNIVAL

The Water Carnival this year was marked by blue skies and wavy waters. In the morning there was a big float parade from the Junior Camp Waterfront to the Sailing Dock. Unfortunately some floats were not quite so sea-worthy and never did make it. The afternoon saw many interesting events during the Water Olympics. One of the highlights was the Cory 100 freestyle swim—to everyone's amazement it was won by Wells Village.

George Mullikin, Ron Emerson, and Mike Hemmett headed up the big show that evening held out over the water. This year's theme was Fathom Fantasy. Skits were plentiful and well received.

An hour after taps we furled the sails, battened down the hatches and stowed away for the night.

Will this float parade ever end?

Paul Bunyan the greatest woodsman of all times was the symbol of our special event fourth period. The trip department was responsible for all arrangements which included plenty of verbal advertisement at meals.

The afternoon was filled with tests of skill and strength. Caper throwing, burling, and the messy greased pole were but a few of the many events. Former camp director Chief Hester was up to Cory for a visit this day and so had an opportunity to participate in our day.

The evening brought to Cory's Playhouse the all staff show. It was terrific. Fantastic Follies was headed up by Hike Heiskell. The high point of the evening was the selection of Miss Cory 1960. The lucky girl was Eric Bellman. Miss Central Staff. She was thrilled.

The evening was topped off by Free Refreshments. All returned to their bunks tummies full and hearts happy.

What Me Worry?

Cory is proud of its tripping program. Under the capable and watchful eye of the trip department senior campers have the opportunity to experience wilderness camping. Wells Villagers stay at Tail-e-po, Walmsley and Waterfront to more distant parts such as Taughannach Falls, Robert Treman State Park, Seneca River, Sugar Hill and other such interesting spots. Of course tripping requires transportation and our truck driver, Bill Rehberg was always (well almost always) there on time. To Cory's Trip Department we offer thanks for a job done well.

SAILING

Sailing, sailing over Keuka's Blue Waters. Cory's Sailing Department is one of the more popular spots in camp. Cory's fleet of seven K Class boats got a great deal of hard use this summer as many campers learned the ropes of sailing.

Much credit goes to Jack Mullen our very able Sailing Master who kept things down at the Yacht Club ship shape throughout the season.

Each year skippers try for the coveted Cory Sailing Cup. Each period the best sailor is invited to return at the end of the summer to enter the final sailing races. This year's winner was Dave Head, to him go our heartiest congratulations. Cory is proud of its sailing and its contribution to our program.

ATHLETICS

Athletics form a big part of our summer program. Hardball, softball, basketball, volleyball, soccer, archery, tennis, are but some of the many varied athletic activities that are offered at camp.

Challenges are put forth by cabins and tribes to bring glory and honor to the particular villages.

Here you see some of our campers and staff in action. Things were kept at a pretty steep pace, and go, go, go, was the action word this year in the Athletic Department.

If you can't row Warren—then SWIM.

WATERFRONT

John Beehee, Senior Waterfront Director and Ed Donohue his assistant held forth down on the waterfront this year at camp.

There responsibility was a big one—capably handled and executed to provide the maximum amount of enjoyment on the Waterfront which is indeed the most important of all camping activities.

Instructional classes were participated in by all campers. Many had great times during the general swims in the afternoon. What fun out on the tower. We can't forget the Sunday Morning Soap Bath either, this many times became a strong necessity. We lived through the experience however and will talk for a long time about Cory's waterfront exploits.

Boating and canoeing was vitally important to the waterfront program also. It also was a challenge, especially on days when the water was more than usually choppy.

I can row a boat, canoe—hope you make out satisfactorily. Keep those water wings polished and hop aboard for the Summer of '61.

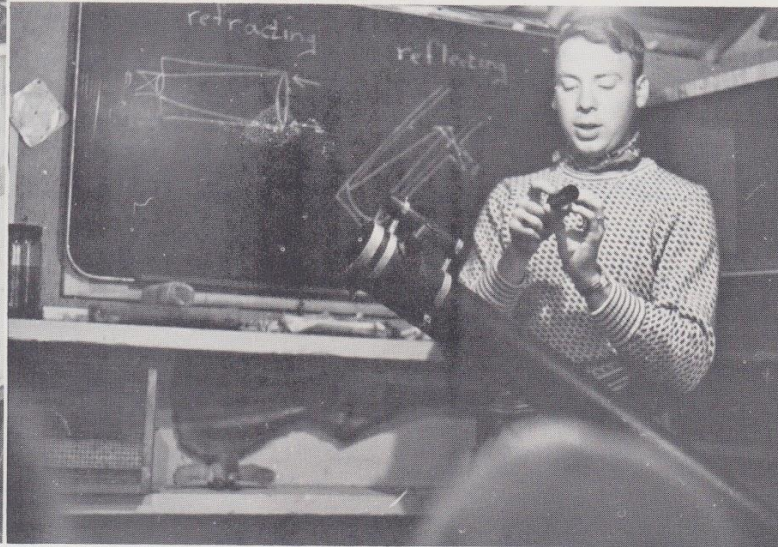

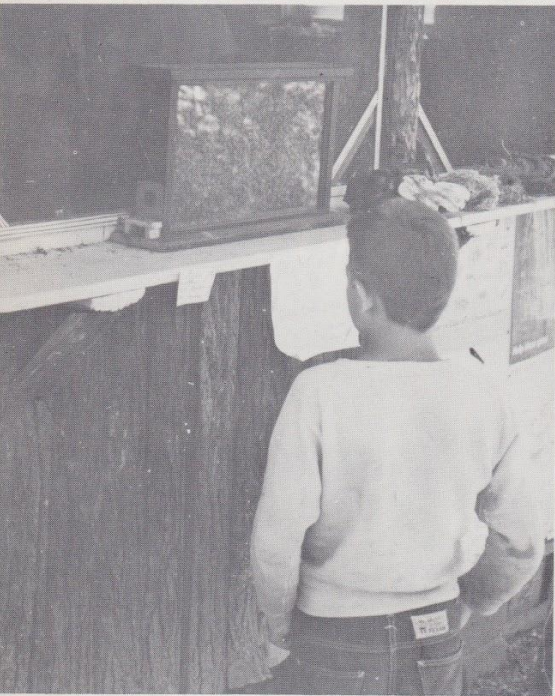

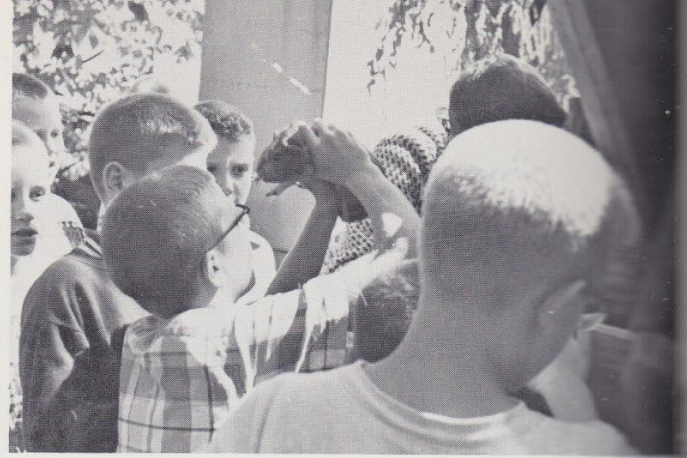

Come on, I'll race ya.

OK, everybody into the boats.

Nature under the direction of Warren Smith was one of the best programs we had to offer this summer. Something was always doing at the Nature Lodge. Animals to feed and clean, baby mice to watch grow, pheasant chicks, rabbits, guinea pigs, fish, snakes, and a host of wonderful projects to work on. Here we see Warren and some of the boys in action. And say, if you should come across some moths or butterflies don't forget to send them to Cory, care of G. W. Smith—they are needed for our collection.

NATURE

CRAFTS

Eric Bellman took active charge of the craft shop with Ron Emerson assisting. Many of the youngsters were able to complete some very interesting craft projects. Dyeing shirts, water painting, carving, and creating interesting abstracts were part of the program. One never knew what was coming up next in the craft shop, but you could be sure no matter what it was, it was exciting and most interesting for all involved. Experimentation was the key word this summer for all craft projects. Many interesting specimens were developed.

HARRIS MEMORIAL CHAPEL

Harris Memorial Chapel was under the direction this summer of Bob Alford. He provided many interesting services to the glory of God, our Heavenly Father. One could not help but feel God's presence in the beautiful setting of our chapel area.

George Mullikin provided the lovely organ music and also directed the Cory Choir which gave forth with some very excellent music which added greatly to our services. Occasional Vesper Services in the various villages added to the religious life of camp this summer and brought us closer to our Creator.

The second year of Ranger Trips through Canada's lakes and the Adirondack region of New York State provided new adventures for some 35 boys. Paddles stirred placid waters; feet trampled along wooden trails; animals scampered away quickly from view. Roughing it in its truest form Ranger Trips again got under way for 1960.

Again this year Ranger Trips were under the direction of Bill Hale, assisted by Dick Lee and Dick Jones. They provided many varied and interesting experiences in camping for their various groups.

Camping as real camping is exhibited in Cory's Ranger Trips. Why not sign up next year for this adventure in camping?

IROQUOIS FEDERATION

The Braves of Iroquois Village again had a most happy and successful season under the direction of Tom Avery.

This year a third tier was added to the very fine council circle in Iroquois Village, also an excellent new sign marking the entrance to our Village made by Roger Brown.

Excitement and adventure were the keys to a packed full program of FUN in the Iroquois Federation. Very fine programs of Indian Skills, Chief Hunts, Wild West Nites, Song Parties, Skits and Stunts, were but a few of the many major evening activities participated in by our braves and chiefs.

The Iroquois Federation is divided into five tribes, the Cayugas, Mohawks, Onondagas, Senecas, and Tuscaroras. Each Lodge elects their little chief and scribe. Tribes work very hard to obtain sacred coup feathers on the field of battle (softball, soccer, basketball, water polo, war canoe races, and inspection).

Gary Diehl, our Waterfront Director did an outstanding job in organizing our fine program of instructional and recreational swims. Our boating and canoeing was extensive this year and all braves enjoyed this activity very much.

We each had the opportunity of spending a night out at the Teepee and cooking our own breakfast in the morning. Some of us even went on war canoe trips, this was a real adventure and lots of fun.

The moon will rise and fall in the great sky for many moons to come, yet each brave and chief will long remember the summer of '60 as one of the very best.

PERIOD THREE CAMPERS

PERIOD FOUR CAMPERS

"Sixty seconds to line up for inspection!" This was the familiar cry in Wells this summer as each cabin went all out to win the prize for having the neatest cabin and area. A watermelon and crash boat ride were the coveted booty for the winners.

Wells was under the direction of Jungle Jim Murphy who did whatever necessary to insure a lively program for Wells Villagers. There were campfires, evening dips, counselor hunts, and other exciting events each evening.

Wells Village had opportunities for real camping this year. Each cabin spent an evening at Tail-e-po, where camping skills were learned by all.

WALMSLEY VILLAGE

Under the leadership of Hike Heiskell, Walmsley Villagers had an abundance of good times. The evening programs were many and varied. Topping the list were Counselor Hunts and boxing in the Senior Boathouse. Walmsley was active in the Sailing department as well as other of the popular club periods in camp.

The highlight of each camping period was a trip to some distant point. Sugar Hill was a popular spot for their tripping program. Other trips were by canoe on the waterways of the Finger Lake Region.

At last, after three previous tries, Waterfront Village defeated the CIT's in softball during the fourth period.

For Waterfront Village the camping season was filled with many exciting experiences. As always there were the trips to various camping sites around this part of the state. Then too there were the ever popular trips to Onanda with Dan Shulman in the lead. Waterfront also played host to Onanda at Cory during the third period.

Waterfront displayed their talents for special events usually copping at least one prize. The Sailing Cup and the Cory Cup went to members of Waterfront Village.

ALMA MATER

On the shores of Old Lake Keuka
There's a spot most dear.
Camp Cory we have named it
Come, let forth our Cheer.
Cory, Cory, may we ever
Keep your name most high.
You have set a standard for us,
May it never die.
