

Welcome to Family and Consumer Sciences with Mrs. Nance!

I'm so excited to start the year with you!

Meet Mrs. Nance

Name: Cindy Nance

From: Blacksburg, Virginia

Education: Graduate of Va Tech University (Psychology) and Radford University (Masters Curriculum and Instruction)

Teaching: This starts my 27th year of teaching. I previously taught 5th grade and 6th grade math. I have been teaching at HMS since the school opened.

Enjoys: Cooking, golfing, working out, spending time with family and football

What is FACS?

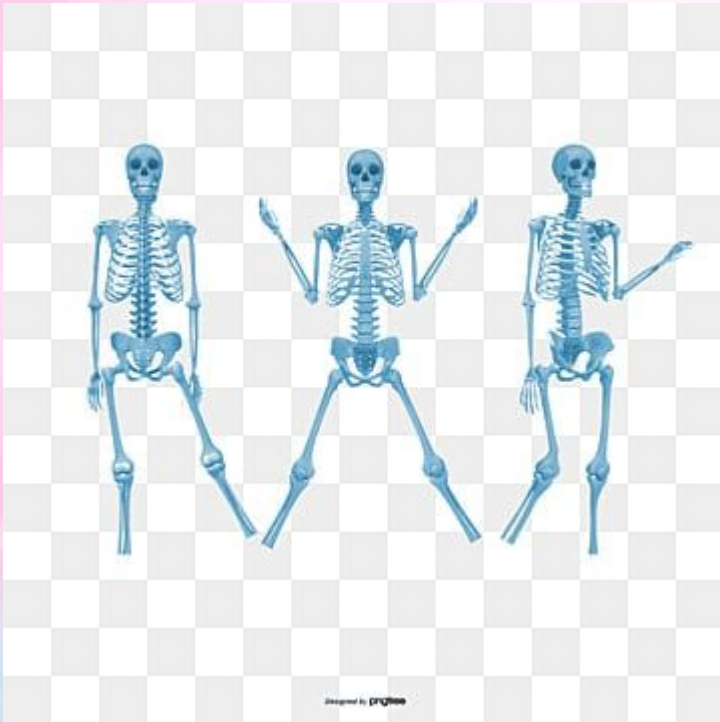

This middle school course allows students to explore life skills essential for their roles as managers, consumers, workers, and family members both now and in the future. Areas of study include managing resources, relating with others, making healthy food choices, learning about children, and preparing for careers. Art, mathematics, and science are reinforced.
