You know something Kakyojin?
Every vehicle I've ever driven has crashed.

I drove the family car into a tree the day I got it...

I crashed a plane into an Aztec dude once. He happened to be on a volcano, too...

And I think we both remember the truck incident in the desert a while back...I really should've gotten my license.

Wait, Mr. Joestar! If every vehicle you drive ends up crashing, then how are we still driving this car!?

We're not!
