

INTRODUCING NATALIE YANG

CLASSROOM
CHAMPIONS®

how better gets better and better

Natalie is a senior at The University of Pennsylvania studying Philosophy, Politics, and Economics. She competes on the gymnastics team in beam. She participated in all 12 meets as a freshman, achieving the 4th best score in program history.

In 2020, Natalie contributed to Penn's team score with the second highest score in program history, helping them clinch the Ivy Classic Team Championship. She has three dogs and her favorite sports team is the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Performance Stats:

- Awarded Most Consistent of 2019
- Ivy Classic Team Champion
- 2nd on beam at Ivy Classic (2020)

FUN FACTS!

Natalie started gymnastics when she was four and has three dogs! One is a foster and two are her family's. Natalie is from California and her Favorite team is the Pittsburgh Steelers because her dad used to watch them when she was growing up.