

UD/MD Responsible Use Policy

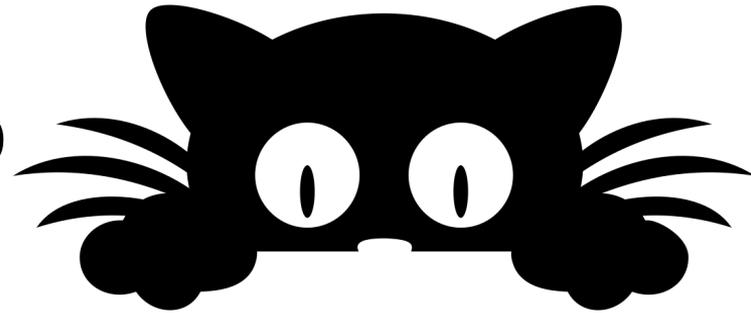

18 September 2018

by Dr. Baucum McKinney and Dr. Wes Fryer

A Quotation to Remember...

“The true test of a ~~man’s~~ person’s character is what s/he does when no one is watching.”
— John Wooden

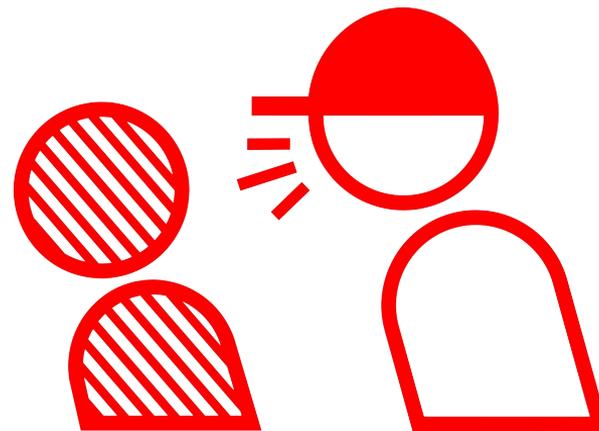

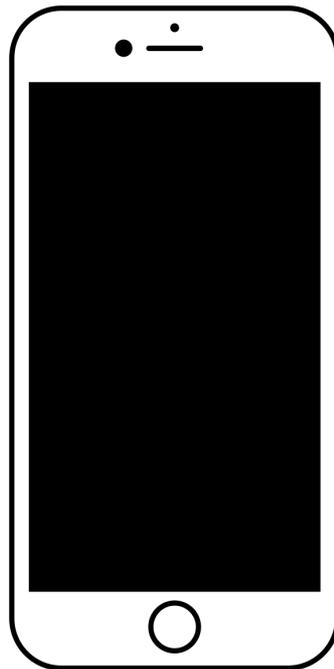

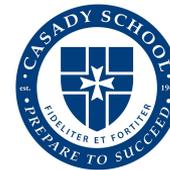

Casady Mission Statement

Casady School develops excellence, confidence, and integrity in students and prepares them with the skills and knowledge that serve as the foundation for success.

A Story from Dr. Fryer...

Casady Honor Code

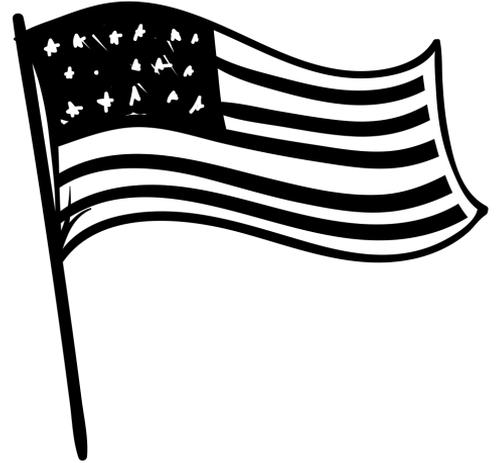

“I will not lie, cheat, or steal, and I will, in good conscience, deal responsibly with any breaches of this code. If I do not act in a responsible manner, I will accept the consequences determined by the Discipline Committee.”

Student Responsible Use Policy (RUP)

Revised May 2018

In order to be a good digital citizen:

I will:

1. Adhere to The Casady School Honor Code.
2. Keep personal information private, including login information and passwords.
3. Use only my first name and last initial when collaborating online unless expressly instructed by my teacher.
4. Treat others with respect at all times, both online and offline, and respect the work of others.
5. Tell an adult if someone makes me feel uncomfortable or uses technology to hurt or harass me.
6. Adhere to copyright laws by requesting use of software or media produced by others, and follow “fair use” provisions of copyright law, for online resources, books and media not of my own creation.
7. Suitably provide attribution for / cite online resources, books and media not of my own creation.
8. Carefully examine an Internet source before using it, choosing to use it responsibly in ways which reflect positively on myself and Casady School.

Casady Student “Responsible Use Policy” (RUP)

I will not:

1. Provide personal information online about myself or others to anyone who I don't know.
2. Misrepresent myself or others while online.
3. Use technology to bully or tease other people.
4. Copy, damage or delete the work or property of others, including "hacking" websites, computers, or devices.
5. Log into another user's account or tamper with another person's files.
6. Send unwanted communications to those who ask me not to or forward inappropriate materials.
7. Read another person's private communications without permission.
8. Search for, view or copy inappropriate pictures or information.
9. Use school technology to buy, sell or register for anything unless instructed to do so.
10. Take pictures or videos of anyone or share photos/videos without their permission.
11. Use social media sites or chat apps during class without permission and specific authorization from a teacher.
12. Load personal software onto school resources without prior permission.

I understand:

1. The use of school technology is a privilege, not a right.
2. My access to Internet resources and use of technology resources owned by Casady School is not private. Teachers, technology staff and administrators may review my work and activities at any time, including my personal devices used to access school network resources and/or used at school.
3. Student-created content on the network and online might be seen or read by anyone in the world with access to the internet including my teachers, parents and peers.
4. I and my family are financially responsible for technology equipment I check out for use if it is damaged or lost.
5. It is my responsibility to abide by the terms and conditions of this Technology Responsible Use Policy and all revisions.
