

Denise Klaus

Menu

8/7/2020

Students will explore the differences between fiction and nonfiction.

Before you Learn Self-Check

I can name the two types of books that are in a library and name the differences between them.

- I can do this with a lot of help.
- I can do this with some help.
- I can do this alone.
- I can teach others how to do this.

Appetizer (Instruction & Process)

Students will listen to two stories read by the teacher and identify the differences between them using text evidence.

Students will make a list of parts of a fiction book and parts of a nonfiction book. www.youtube.com/watch?v=hsNcnRnjsEY

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VJF04RIUJDw>

Main Dish (Practice)

Students will identify parts of fiction books and parts of nonfiction books.

Dessert (Product)

Students will make a list of subjects that they can find with both fiction and nonfiction books.