

REAL TALK, GOOD ACTION

Deaf Women's Journey: Obstacles and Successes

Thursday, April 27, 2023 | 7 PM ET

Note: captioning and voice interpretation will start once we begin.

WELCOME

Stephanie Hakulin

NAD Vice President

HOUSE RULES

Use Chat to ask a question or raise your hand if you'd like to ask in ASL.

Chat will be left on for other comments and information sharing. Please be respectful in chat.

RECOGNIZE NATIVE LAND

We are gathered on the land of the indigenous Native Americans and we ask that you join us in acknowledging their community and elders, both past and present as well as future generations.

MODERATOR

- Cookie J. Brand

PANELISTS

- Mayra Castrejon-Hernandez
- Rosavetta Jackson
- Zellie Jones

Panel Introductions

POLL

Have you heard of or know about misogyny?

- yes
- no
- seems familiar
- unsure

How has your identity
changed over time?

What barriers have you encountered while living in the intersection of your identities?

What's your definition of misogyny?

As a BIPOC Deaf woman, how did you navigate towards success in discovering your life's purpose in the midst of challenging societal expectations?

What can people take away from your organization?

Final words.

THANK YOU!

We encourage you to show up at our next webinar,
see you next time!