

Using ScratchJr, present at least one concrete action or idea that helps achieve the Sustainable Development Goal.

To take on this challenge, you will need to follow certain criteria.

Content of the presentation

Your program should include:
☐	at least one concrete action or idea
☐	at least one character, one background, and one audio recording

Creation

Your program should include elements created or modified by you :
☐	at least one character or background
☐	at least one audio recording

Content of the ScratchJr program

Your program should include the following during video capture :
☐	motion blocks to animate at least one character
☐	at least 4 types of blocks : triggering, motion, sound, and end

Elements related to publication

To publish your program, you should :
☐	have a *title that does not include personal information (*optional for kindergarten)
☐	make sure your animation is less than one minute long
☐	use only copyright-free images, photos or sounds (no photos or personal information of students)
☐	pay close attention to your use of language

