Topic of the Week

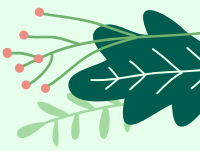

How Pharmacists can Protect Patients from Outdated COVID-19 Treatment

- What Happened?
 - An overuse/overprescription of hydroxychloroquine in the duration of the pandemic due to inconclusive results from studies of its effectiveness against COVID-19
- How it affect public health?
 - Quickly depleting inventory that hurts long-term treatment for patients w/autoimmune conditions
 - FDA received more than 10,000 serious health incidents involve the use of the drug
- Role of Pharmacist → Gatekeeper
 - Last barrier of patient and drug
 - Must stand ground against inappropriate use of drugs
 - Open discussion w/prescriber for risks & benefits
