The screenshot shows a mobile view of a news article from Business Post. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a hamburger menu icon, the 'Business Post' logo, a search icon, and links for 'SUBSCRIBE TODAY' and 'LOG IN'. The article title is 'New bill may push more legal costs on those who take insurers to court'. Below the title is a quote from Robert Troy: 'If someone wants to reject their award and bring it to court and the court doesn't increase the award any further, well then, they're going to have to pay for that'. The author is identified as Michael Brennan, Political Editor, with the Twitter handle @obraonain. The article is dated 6th February, 2022, and includes social media sharing icons for LinkedIn, Facebook, Twitter, and Email. At the bottom of the screenshot is a photograph of a man in a suit sitting at a desk, smiling at the camera.

The poster features the Alliance for Insurance Reform logo at the top. Below it, the text 'D-DAY' is written in large, metallic, 3D-style letters. A green ribbon banner below the letters reads 'MON 26TH APRIL IS INSURANCE D-DAY'. The background shows a city skyline with several large grey arrows pointing downwards. In the foreground, there are images of a man on a phone, a woman on a scooter, a woman holding a plate of food, and a man in a red sports jersey. At the bottom, there is contact information and a small disclaimer.

From Monday 26th, your motor or liability premium should DROP on renewal due to ongoing insurance reforms.

If it doesn't, ask your insurer why not?
And ask your local politician what they're doing about it.
