

Using ScratchJr, present at least one action that helps achieve the Responsible Consumption and Production goal.

To take on this challenge, you will need to follow certain criteria.

Content of the presentation

Your program should include:
<input type="checkbox"/>	At least one concrete action
<input type="checkbox"/>	At least one character, one background, and one audio recording

Creation

Your program should include elements created or modified by you :
<input type="checkbox"/>	At least one character or background
<input type="checkbox"/>	At least one audio recording

Content of ScratchJr program

Your program should include and show during video capture :
<input type="checkbox"/>	Motion blocks to animate at least one character
<input type="checkbox"/>	At least 4 types of blocks : triggering, motion, sound, and end

Elements related to publication

To publish your program, you should :
<input type="checkbox"/>	Have a title without personal information (optional for kindergarten)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Make sure your animation is less than one minute
<input type="checkbox"/>	Use images, photos or sounds that are copyright free (no photo or personal information of students)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Pay close attention to your use of language

