

Early Childhood Education Teachers

2022

Teachers Being Recognized

Heidi Mansa

Cindy Fakhoury

Catherine Terwilliger

Stacy Layton

Zondell Morris

Tracey Kouf

Lisa M. Leonard

Kelly English

Amanda Crockenberg

Megan Embick

Heidi Mansa

School:

Olympic Heights High School

Years teaching:

27 years

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood Education Academy

What I enjoy most about teaching:

My amazing students!!!

Catherine Terwilliger

School:

Santaluces High School

Years teaching:

2 years

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood Education

What I enjoy most about teaching:

Seeing the growth of students

Zondell Morris

School:

Palm Beach Lakes High School

Years teaching:

17 years

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood Teacher Academy

What I enjoy most about teaching:

Teaching is my passion, and I enjoy sharing my knowledge with my students each and every day, but most of all I enjoy seeing them take the knowledge I have imparted on them and using it to become better versions of themselves.

Lisa M. Leonard

School:

Spanish River High School

Years teaching:

23 years

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood Levels 1-4

What I enjoy most about teaching:

Watching a classroom of strangers turn into a class family by the end of the year. My goal is to always cultivate that atmosphere while I teach. If students feel safe and loved, they will learn.

Amanda Crockenberg

School:

Lake Worth High School

Years teaching:

21 years

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood Education

What I enjoy most about teaching:

I enjoy seeing my high school students learn and progress in the field of education through their internships and hands-on learning experiences. I love passing on my knowledge and experiences in the field.

Cindy Fakhoury

School:

Lake Worth High School

Years teaching:

10 years

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood Education

What I enjoy most about teaching:

I enjoy making the connections with my students and seeing their progress through my four year Early Childhood Program. I am excited to see them go off to college or into the real world and obtain a job as a preschool teacher.

Stacy Layton

School:

Boca Raton High School

Years teaching:

19 years

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood Education

What I enjoy most about teaching:

Helping my students to reach their goals, boost their self confidence, being a source of support, and serving as a positive role model.

Tracey Kouf

School:

Wellington High School

Years teaching:

25 years

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood levels 1-4, Student Government

What I enjoy most about teaching:

The interactions with my students and when they are able to take something that you have taught them and utilize it in the preschool or kindergarten classroom. The best gift is when a former student that is now a teacher or a parent tells you that they are better in their position because of what I have taught them.

Kelly English

School:

William T. Dwyer High School

Years teaching:

1 year

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood level 1 & 2

What I enjoy most about teaching:

Everything!!

Megan Embick

School:

William T. Dwyer High School

Years teaching:

8 years

Program/Courses currently teaching:

Early Childhood Education

What I enjoy most about teaching:

I love inspiring my students and teaching them how to be teachers!

Thank you for your hard work and contributions to Early Childhood Education!