Finding A Sitemap On Wordpress

When you click on plugins in the 'appearance' tab of your WordPress dashboard you will find 'akismet' and 'hello dolly' as two defaults already present and waiting. They have specific jobs to do when activated. Akismet is a spam filter and by having it on you ensure spammers don't pollute your site with comments. Hello Dolly is a harmless piece of software that sticks interesting one-liners into the top right corner of your blogging back-office... just so you don't get bored working. ...

Sitemap Pages Wordpress

Now this is where you set it all up. If you scroll down the page a bit to where it says "Basic Options", a little more down the page you will see that Yahoo is unchecked. You will need a special developer code to use this. Don't worry if you're not a developer. Yahoo will give you the code so just go ahead and click the link and get your developer code to put in the box next to notify Yahoo. Then check the Yahoo box and save your update. ...
