- [7] But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments
- [4] He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.
- [8] This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide

- [9] [15] Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.
- [10] And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.
- [11] And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
- [12] [8] Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.
- [13] [9] And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.
