Question:

22

Have I more friends than enemies?

Answer

The swift and cunning planet Mercury sounds a warning, its celestial voice whispering cautionary tales of deceit and duplicity, as it reveals that many individuals harbor intentions to deceive and cheat, their motives shrouded in a veil of dishonesty, seeking to exploit and manipulate for their own gain. Alas, this is a dire omen, a sign that vigilance and discernment must be your guiding principles, lest you fall prey to their cunning schemes and suffer the consequences of their treachery.
