[1] Some sessions are slightly coloured grey. This is to determine that the session is no longer running, so there will never be any more to read for them.

[2] This is not necessarily s1, it's just that every session has people from each time zone. This thread is all the characters that were in the feudal Japan time zone.

[3] This is when the sessions actually connected. This is the official beginning of session 1

[4] This is not necessarily s2, it's just that every session has people from each time zone. This thread is all the characters that were in the medieval time zone.

[5] This is when the sessions actually connected. This is the official beginning of session 2

[6] This is not necessarily s3, it's just that every session has people from each time zone. This thread is all the characters that were in the modern time zone.

[7] This is when the sessions actually connected. This is the official beginning of session 3

[8] This is not necessarily s4, it's just that every session has people from each time zone. This thread is all the characters that were in the future time zone.

[9] This is when the sessions actually connected. This is the official beginning of session 4

[10] April fools!

[11] This session consisted entirely of people who worked on the Reddilstuck fanventure. We know the name isn't original.

[12] Also known as competitive edition

[13] This was created as a side-session with the players from C4S10. This was the beginning of an entire series of connected sessions, including C4S10^2, Door's Toilet (And Corner), Ceruleanstuck, Shardstuck, and Femstuck.

These sessions are referred to as the "S10verse"

[14] "Door" is the nickname for a character from C4S10. He owns a toilet and a corner, all to himself. So proud!

[15] Yet Another Side Session

[16] Stammers got drunk one night, made this, then forgot about it. I can't bring myself to delete it.

[17] For the love of all that is good and holy do not read this session. There's a reason the second thread is the finale.

[18] A single player challenge session: the player versus the DM. If the player dies, they become a boss for the next Lord.

[19] Not an actual Sburd session. Set in different setting that I'm not familiar with [20] It's like day 0, but set a short time in the past.

[21] Sburd session consisting of characters from other forms of media. No original characters.

[23] C4S10^2 ended up restarting after losing too many of the players. This is a part of the "S10verse", as it has come to be known.

[24] Now Nolongersecretnewbiestuck

[25] Soro hid day 0 on a private sub so that people wouldn't yell at him for starting another session

[26] I really don't know what the point of this was.

[27] They did day 0 over Discord

[28] Updated as of November 17th 2018

[29] Only counting sessions that actually started

[30] Technically

[31] Also known as competitive edition

[32] Stand Crash V2

[33] Also known as Secretnewbiestuck, or Nolongersecretnewbiestuck
