

Field Name	variable name	Type (string, #, List-with)	Question	Hint Text (explanation of question)	Detailed Description of Field.
Name	name	string	What is the full (possibly official) historical name of this landmark?	Jones and Laughlin Steel Company (South Side Works)	Name of the landmark - may have multiple names
One Line Summary	one_line	text	Sum up what this site was in its day.	The J&amp;L steelworks was one of the largest steel mills in the world, when it operated from the 1880s to the 1980s.	140 Characters
Nickname	nickname	string	What other names or nickname (s) was this known by? (separate by commas)	J&amp;L Steel	Local nickname, colloquial names, etc
Type	type	string	What type of landmark is this?	Building	Building, Business, Public Art, Natural Feature, Other
Current Address	current_address	string	What is the current address of the site? Provide the Street Number, Street Name, City, State, and Zip	2700 E Carson St, Pittsburgh, PA 15203	Closest current street address of the landmark. Could probably be broken up into address and zip
Visual Recognizability	vizrec	number	Can you still see the landmark? Is it still standing?		0% = gone; 20% = just ruins; 80% = building there, business gone 0
Current Use	current_use	text	What is this location right now (at the time you're writing this?)	The millsite was redeveloped as the South Side Works, a mixed use mall, office, and residential area.	Paragraph - be verbose.
Current Photo/Media	current_photo_link	Direct Photo Link	Please provide a link to [or upload] any photos of the landmark (or the former landmark's location) as it exists now.	(hold for when we have the tech to accept uploads)	This could be a photo, newspaper clipping, or even a video.
Historic Address	historic_address	text	Was this landmark listed under a different address previously? (For example, was the street named something else previously?)	(No previous address, so none listed here)	Important guidance if the street names have changed over time.
historic photo .url	historic_photo_url	Direct Photo Link	Are there any historic photographs available online?	http://www.brooklineconnection.com/history/Facts/Images/SteelMill1967.JPG	Please add a URL of a historic photo, if available online
Start Date	start_date	date	What day was the landmark built, opened, or otherwise came into use?	1886	Date the landmark was constructed / opened / etc yyyy, or mm/yyyyy, or mm/dd/yyyy
Start Date Confidence	start_date_confidence	number	How confident (0% to 100% are you in the date listed?)	0-100	100% = exact day; 80% = month; 50% = year; 20% = decade; 0% = no idea
End Date	end_date	date	What day did the landmark close, out of use, and/or demolished or destroyed?	06/15/1983	Date the landmark stopped being a going concern, whether or not the structure still remains. yyyy, or mm/yyyyy, or mm/dd/yyyy
End Date Confidence	end_date_confidence	number	How confident (0% to 100% are you in the date listed?)	100	100% = exact day; 80% = month; 50% = year; 20% = decade; 0% = no idea
Factual Research History	history_summary	text	Briefly describe the history of the landmark.	The Jones and Laughlin Steel Company was a long-running American steel manufacturer, and the J&amp;L site in South Side &amp; Hazelwood was a massive enterprise. Stretching for more than a mile down the northern bank of the Monongahela River, the three blast furnaces, all named for women, ran night and day. After industrial consolidation and globalization, the last furnace was torn down in 1983, and operations ceased by the 1990s	Summary of researched history of the site. A few sentences
Historic Photo/Media	research_url	url	Do you have a historic picture of this site you'd like to submit? Please provide a link to [or upload] any photos of the landmark as it existed historically.	(Fictional Example) You can find a complete set of photos of the site at www.rememberelizafurnace.com	An outgoing link to somewhere on the internet. This could be a photo, newspaper clipping, or even a video.
Research notes	research_notes	text	State any points of historical contention between researchers	(Fictional Example) The physical historical marker on the site lists the closing day as April 3, 1982, but according to [source], operations did not technically cease until the day before the land was surrendered, nearly three months later. // RB verified closing date, opening date, lat-long, and cleaned up grammar	Metadata for narrating any points of historical contention between researchers. Exact closing year, common misconceptions, etc. Also, if you are wrangling this data, this is the place to write your name & your contribution to that particular entry.
Research Sources	research_sources	url	Name any sources for the factual history. Provide links, book names/authors, etc.	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jones_and_Laughlin_Steel_Company	url

Field Name	variable name	Type (string, #, List-with)	Question	Hint Text (explanation of question)	Detailed Description of Field.
Personal History Of Site	personal_history_text	text	Do you have a personal story about this site? Write it here.	(Fictional Example) Bob moved to Pittsburgh in 1907 along with his brother to work at J&amp;L, which he always called "Jane Elle".	Personal stories related to that site "I remember when me and Bob used to steal lollipops from this place."
Interview Subject	personal_history_subject	string	Who told that personal story?	Joe, Bob's friend	First name, last initial
Contributor	personal_history_recorder	string	Name of recorder (if different from story subject)	Bob, who was reminiscing with Joe about what Joe remembered	First name, last initial
Followup Email	followup_email	email	Your e-mail address (optional)	Bob's email, bob@bobemail.com
Lat	lat	decimal	N/A	40.4269216	decimal xx.xxxxxx
Long	long	decimal	N/A	-79.9666725	decimal xx.xxxxxx
Unique ID	unique_id	number	N/A	20170910	typically a time signature