

#	Topic	Lesson	Release	Description	Grammar	Vocabulary
1	Introduction	1. The visa interview	Released	Lesson objectives The key objective is to get acquainted with the student; to get to know them better in order to warm up for efficient learning. To tell about the Flipped Classroom approach. To introduce the student to the lesson plot.
2	At the airport	2. On my way to the USA	Released	In this lesson, you are going to: practice asking questions in a polite way; role-play social situations at the airport; revise some vocabulary related to the topic at the airport.	Indirect questions	Places and objects you find at the airport and during a flight (baggage reclaim, customs, carry-on, etc.)
3	Renting a place to live	3. A place to call home	Released	Lesson objectives To learn and memorize new words related to types of dwellings and rental conditions. To practice modal verbs in the context of tenancy regulations. To improve practical skills that will allow students not to get confused when renting an apartment in an English-speaking country.	Modal verbs of obligation	Vocabulary related to living spaces (semi-detached house, spacious, landlord, etc.)
4	Meeting people	4. Hello, neighbors!	Released	In this lesson, you are going to: practice discussing experiences; role-play meeting new people and getting to know them; revise the vocabulary related to the topic of personality.	Present Perfect	Vocabulary related to the topic of personality (smart cookie, sensitive, couch potato, etc)
5	Shopping	5. Weekend rush	Released	In this lesson, you are going to: practice describing items; role-play various shopping situations; revise the vocabulary related to the topic of shopping.	-	Vocabulary related to shopping (window shopping, to shop around, rip-off) Functional language to describe something you don't remember the name of (It can be used for ... It's made of ... etc.)
6	Job interview	6. Why should we hire you?	Released	In this lesson, you are going to: discuss your working experience and competence; role-play a job interview.	-	Vocabulary to describe your working experience and competence (versatile, proactive, etc.)
7	Health issues	7. Clean Bill of health	Released	In this lesson, you are going to: revise the vocabulary related to the topic of health; talk about illnesses, their symptoms and treatments; discuss your health and health habits.	-	Vocabulary related to the topic of health (rash, painkiller, runny nose, etc.)
8	Work ethics	8. Office etiquette	Released	In this lesson, you will: discuss some tips for your first day of work; talk about office etiquette; role-play situations at work.	First Conditional	Vocabulary related to the topic of workplace ethical problems (allegation, harassment, get the wrong idea, etc.)
9	Relationships	9. Dating issues	Released	In this lesson, you will: discuss personal views on choosing a partner; talk about online dating; revise reported speech.	Reported speech	Vocabulary related to the topic of relationships (get engaged, split up, arranged marriage)
10	Revision	10. A month in America	Released	In this lesson, you will revise topics from lessons 1-9
11	Movie industry	11. Let's go to the movies!	Released	In this lesson, you will: discuss personal preferences of movies; make plans to go see a movie with a friend; revise the passive voice and Present Perfect.	Passive voice	Vocabulary related to the topic of movies and entertainment (plot, stuntman, a chick flick)
12	Personal finances	12. What do you do with your money?	Released	In this lesson, you will: discuss opinions on money and finance; negotiate an insurance plan; practice giving financial advice.	-	Vocabulary related to the topic of money (loan, to put away, to be in the black)
13	Debatable social issues	13. We the people...	Released	In this lesson, you will: discuss your attitudes to politics; improve speaking skills through a debate on social issues; learn to develop and support an argument.	-	Vocabulary related to the topic of debate (to ban, to legalize, I'm convinced... etc.)
14	Problems at home	14. Professional haggling	Released	In this lesson, you will: talk about problems that may arise at home; use the range of phrases related to the topic of haggling; describe your problem to and haggle with a plumber.	Indirect Questions (revision)	Vocabulary for describing a price (reasonable, pricey, rip off, etc.)
15	Problems with food	15. My dinner smells off...	Released	In this lesson, you will: discuss your food preferences and eating out experiences; improve your problem solving and complaining skills.	Verbs of the Senses	Vocabulary for describing problems with food (moldy, bland, to be off, etc.)
16	Healthy lifestyle	16. Biohacking training	Released	In this lesson, you will: use the construction "I wish" and "If only". ask, give and decline to give advice professionally; talk about the biohacking lifestyle.	I wish / If only	Vocabulary related to a healthy lifestyle (carbohydrate, cut down on, push up, etc.)
17	Small talk	17. Business networking	Released	In this lesson, you will be able to: conduct small talk; direct a conversation with proper phrases; establish business networks; give an elevator pitch.	Tag questions	Vocabulary related to communication (nitty-gritty, rapport, appropriate, etc.)
18	Bad news	18. That's sad indeed	Released	In this lesson, you will: describe a car accident and its causes; talk about serious injuries; announce bad news in a concise and polite way.	Non-gradable adjectives	Vocabulary related to accidents (cast, closed fracture, collision, etc.)
19	Telling a story	19. Bedtime stories	Released	In this lesson, you will: use narrative tenses correctly; use the range of new words and phrases related to stories; narrate stories.	Narrative tenses	Vocabulary for sequencing the story (Initially, after that, suddenly, eventually, etc.)
20	Revision	20. A year in America	Released	In this lesson, you will revise topics from lessons 11-19
21	Crime	21. True detective	Released	In this lesson, you will: discuss the topic of burglaries and crimes; practice making deductions using Past Modals; role-play a conversation with a police officer.	Modals of deduction (past)	Vocabulary related to the topic of crimes (burglary, suspect, witness, to commit a crime, etc.)
22	Court and punishment	22. Jury duty	Released	In this lesson, you are going to: discuss the topic of crime and punishment; practice suggesting solutions and alternatives; role-play giving a jury verdict in court.	-	Vocabulary to be used in court (jury, to acquit, fine, etc.)
23	Giving a presentation	23. Business presentation	Released	In this lesson, you are going to: use business language properly; start, direct and end a presentation with typical phrases; give an effective and well-structured presentation.	-	Vocabulary useful for giving a presentation (key point, outline, pitch, etc.)
24	Conflict management	24. Handling a conflict	Released	In this lesson, you will: use conflict management vocabulary properly; apologize, give explanations, make, decline or accept suggestions with typical functional phrases; solve conflicts at work with ease.	Linkers of purpose, result, reason and contrasting	Vocabulary related to the topic of conflicts (accuse of, misunderstanding, blame, etc.)
25	Events	25. Weekend in the USA	Released	In this lesson, you will: talk about the ways to spend a weekend in the USA; describe the events you want to visit; talk about your likes and dislikes.	-	Vocabulary for describing an event (outstanding, lame, splendid)
26	Stereotypes	26. Stereotypes we believe?	Released	In this lesson, you will: use defining and non-defining relative clauses correctly; use the range of new words related to the topic of giving recommendations; describe stereotypes about some of the US states and your country.	Defining and non-defining relative clauses	Vocabulary for expressing tendencies (tend to, be prone to, average, etc.)
27	Wedding planning	27. In sickness and in health	Released	In this lesson, you will: use wedding language properly; express wishes, orders, and necessity; improve speaking skills in the context of wedding planning; enlarge your knowledge on the US wedding traditions and structure.	Complex object	Vocabulary related to wedding (maid of honor, newlywed, venue, etc.)
28	Future	28. The Future is Today	Released	In this lesson, you will: discuss the topic of future innovation; talk about the likelihood of future events; speculate about what the world of the future will look like.	Ways of expressing future	Vocabulary related to technology and inventions (artificial, driverless, groundbreaking, etc.)
29	Charity	29. Let's do good	Released	In this lesson, you will: speak about charities; talk about segments of society; persuade people to do something; hold a conversation about the US and world charities.	Adjectives used as nouns	Vocabulary related to the topic of charity (make a difference, altruism, raise money, etc.)
30	Moving out, immigration	30. Come back home	Released	In this lesson, you will: use a range of vocabulary in the context of packing up; use "should have done" construction for regrets in the past; deal with the situation of moving out.	Expressing regrets (should + have + past participle)	Vocabulary related to moving out (fragile, lift up, pack up, etc.)
31	Revision	31. Big Game	Released	In this lesson, you will revise topics from lessons 21-30
32	Exam	32. Final exam	Released			