

Have you learned English before, and yet do not feel confident when you use it? Or maybe it takes you a long time to form a sentence in your head, and you struggle with writing emails in English. Or perhaps when your boss asks you to write minutes in a meeting, you need hours to get it right.

You might possibly be envious of other people, like your colleagues, who can speak to their clients in perfect English with the right intonation and pronunciation, and are able to write reports with ease, and have no problem using the correct punctuation. You feel like you are stuck in a rut, unable to advance.
