

3v3 Hard Biter Battle Tournament

What is Biter Battles?

Biter Battles is an indirect PvP Scenario developed by Comfy. Two teams separated by a river battle it out by defending their starting Rocket Silo from biters while consuming science flasks to increase strength of the biters attacking their opponent. Comfy has a public multiplayer server running 24/7 on the latest experimental version of Factorio. Go check it out.

Tournament Settings:

3v3 Double Elimination tournament. Hard difficulty. Default Biter Battle settings, so imported blueprints are disabled. Biter threat values will be changed however. Final match is best of 1
Every team is guaranteed to play in at least 2 matches.

Matches to be played on Weekends! Teams decide when they want to play their matches. Avoid double booking it with other matches though.

Make sure you can play on weekends if you sign up for this tournament

Only 3 people per team. If someone is missing for a match then anyone can fill in.

The team leader signs up by sending a message to me (Taishan) on the comfy discord

Signup period is February. First matches to be played on the weekend of 6th-8th March

Practice matches between teams are encouraged

Brackets consist of 4, 8, 16 etc teams. If for example we get 12 teams, the 16 team bracket will be used and the first 4 teams to sign up will automatically advance to the second round

Note

Threat values for early biters will be increased. Final values are to be determined before the tournament starts, but it will be easier than the current public server. This to help teams surviving early game but still keep the high evo increase from hard difficulty.
