Poll Details
1.The trustees were prepared for the meeting and there was quality, honest, focused, respectful, patient, and efficient debate during all parts of the meeting. 2.Parliamentary procedure was followed. For example, each trustee spoke only once until all other trustees had an opportunity to contribute to the deliberation. 3.The trustees focused on the business of the board as presented on the agenda, staying within the policy-making purview of the board which allowed for an efficiently run meeting. In other words, "what" needed to be done and not "how" something was to be do 4.The Superintendent/President and staff were treated with respect as the subject matter experts. 5.The board did not backtrack past decisions or stray into unnecessary commentary to the audience. 6.The meeting was efficient, and each trustee held the others accountable to our ground rules.
