PAX Online 2021 Pokemon League Rules

Challengers must own a copy of Pokemon Sword and Shield, Nintendo Switch Online, and be registered on the PPL Discord to participate. Full list of rules on paxpokemoleague.net/rules/

Leader Identification: Leaders will be identified by Lime Green discord names.

Battle Default: Unless otherwise specified by the leader, all battles will be single battles played on Nintendo Switch Online.

Species Clause: A player's team may not contain two Pokémon with the same National Pokédex number (including Alolan and Galarian forms). Exceptions may be made for novelty teams.

Healing Item clause: No more than one of each healing item may be present on a team. (Leftovers, Black Sludge)

Self-KO Clause: If anyone uses a move that is an intentional self KO move (like Explosion) the user of the move loses the match if it is the deciding factor. Moves with recoil do not apply to this clause and the user of that move will win the match.

Sleep Clause: A player cannot put two or more opposing Pokémon to sleep using attacks that induce sleep to opposing Pokémon. A Pokémon using Rest does not count towards this total.

Evasion Clause: A player cannot increase their Pokémon's evasion stat with a move that specifically increases evasion.

OHKO Clause: The moves Fissure, Guillotine, Sheer Cold, and Horn Drill cannot be used.

Endless Battle Clause: A Pokémon may not have a moveset that is capable of intentionally causing a battle to continue endlessly.

Unreleased Pokémon: Any Pokémon not currently in the Galar Pokédex or officially released by Game Freak cannot be used.

Hidden Abilities: Any hidden abilities that haven't officially been released cannot be used.

Banned Abilities: No team may contain a Blaziken with the ability Speed Boost. The ability Power Construct is banned.
