

Gilman Scholarship Checklist
	Task	Additional Information
<input type="checkbox"/>	I have reviewed the FAQ section of the Gilman website prior to submission	The FAQ section on the Gilman website offers lots of great information to common questions and concerns of applicants. I highly recommend reading this section before you start your application.
<input type="checkbox"/>	I have checked my financial aid award letter to make sure I am receiving a federal Pell Grant	Log into your MyUW account and click on Student Finances and then click "financial aid status" to view the line items in your award package.
<input type="checkbox"/>	I have chosen a country with an overall travel rating of 1 or 2 or on the list of exceptions referenced on the Gilman website.	you can check your host country's overall travel rating by visiting: https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html
<input type="checkbox"/>	I have ordered my transcripts and uploaded them, front and back, into my application	you can order your transcripts online through your myUW portal or visit the registrar's office in Schmitz Hall 129. https://registrar.washington.edu/students/ordering-transcripts/
<input type="checkbox"/>	I have chosen JaCinda Barnes as my certifying financial aid adviser from the dropdown menu	You do not need to make an appointment with the Office of Student Financial Aid to get your adviser certification.
<input type="checkbox"/>	I have chosen Kiana Parker as my study abroad adviser from the dropdown menu	You do not need to make an appointment with Kiana to get your adviser certification.
<input type="checkbox"/>	I have received feedback on my essays prior to submitting my application	There are many ways to get help with drafts of your essays the Office of Merit Scholarships, Clue Writing Center and Odegaard Writing Center and Kiana Parker are all available to assist you.
<input type="checkbox"/>	My online application for cycle 2 is due by 11:59 pm Pacific Time on March 1, 2022.	Late submissions will not be accepted! Do not procrastinate and wait until nearly midnight to submit your application.